IRISH SITUATION
EASED BY ASQUITH
GOING TO DUBLIN

TWO LEADERS IN REBELLION, WHOSE LIVES WERE PROMISED SPARED FOR TIME BEING, HAVE BEEN PUT TO DEATH—REGRET EXPRESSED BY LIBERALISTS.

EMERALD ISLE IS INDIGNANT

Charges Made That Many Have Been Arrested and Some Deported Simply Because Sinn Feiners Took Forcible Possession of Their Houses and Fired from Them.

By the Associated Press.

London, May 12.—Premier Asquith's sudden resolve to go to Dublin, which was hailed by his supporters as a stroke of genius, has had the effect of assuaging political passions. Parliament does not meet Friday and the fact that there was no session today helped to bring about a day of calm in strange contrast to yesterday's sensations.

The only new fact concerning the situation in Ireland is that two other leaders in the rebellion whose execution was delayed by Premier Asquith's undertaking that there would be no further executions until after parliament had debated John Dillon's motion, have been put to death. They were James Connolly, one of the signers of the proclamation of the Irish republic, and John McDermott. It seems extremely probable that there will now be no more executions.

Regret is expressed by influential liberal newspapers that the government failed to stop the execution of Connolly and McDermott. The Manchester Guardian and the Nation contend that a commutation of these sentences would have been not only clemency, but policy.

Premier Asquith appears to have spent the day in Dublin seeing officials and acquainting himself personally with the situation and it is presumed that it may be two or three days before any radical decisions are adopted, although it is recognized on all sides that there is urgent need to re-establish an effective civil government in Ireland.

Much hope is expressed that something will come of the proposed rapprochement between John Redmond and Sir Edward Carson.

Time to Stop, Think Ireland.

By the Associated Press.
Dublin, May 12.—The opinion that sufficient executions have been carried out in connection with the recent rebellion to show the government's determination to stamp out treason, is gaining strength in all circles in Dublin. All leaders of the uprising have been shot and many of their followers have been punished with imprisonment.

The correspondent of the Associated Press has been searching inquiry among the various classes of society, including civil officials, business men and workmen of all grades, and found a strong unanimity in the view that the government will be faced with a very serious disaffection even among the hitherto loyal nationalists should executions continue.

Arrests and deportations also are arousing antipathy, especially in cases where persons are arrested merely because Sinn Feiners fired from the roofs of their houses, often without the knowledge of the occupants. It is asserted that no fewer than ten municipal councillors of Dublin have disappeared since the revolt began and whether they were jailed, deported or killed in the fighting is unknown.

A cablegram from Los Angeles, Cal., to the Freeman Journal today is as follows:

"Inform family of Eamon Ceannt that they will be cared for."
Ceannt was in the first group executed.

Mexican Teachers to Leave Boston

By the Associated Press.
Boston, May 12.—Forty-five Mexican teachers maintained by their government here for the last ten months for the purpose of studying American educational methods in Mexico on the steamer Monterey which is due to sail from New York Tuesday morning. The message contained no explanation.

Germans Switch Attacks to British Lines at Hulluch

By the Associated Press.
Switching their attack from the Verdun region against the French and Germans have again begun a sharp offensive against the British line around Hulluch.

Preceding their movements with the usual heavy bombardments the Germans launched an infantry attack against the British lines near Vermelles and captured first line trenches over a front of about 500 yards. The British admit the loss of the position but say part of them were retaken. Berlin declares the British suffered heavy casualties.

Around Verdun the French on the left bank of the Meuse have recaptured points taken from them by the Germans.

Bombardments are again taking place around Le Mortomme and Cumieres and against the French first and second line trenches on the right bank of the Meuse between the Haut-dremont wood and Vaux. A German

SUB-COMMITTEE OF GENERAL CONFERENCE RECOMMENDS DROPPING CLAUSE PROHIBITING VARIOUS AMUSEMENTS IN BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

OPEN SHOP QUESTION DEBATED

Several Speakers Assert Church Must Take Stand for Unions in Order to Win Friendship of Labor—Publishing Plants of Denomination in Cincinnati and Chicago Affected.

By the Associated Press.

Saratoga Springs, May 12.—Members of the Methodist Episcopal church who play cards, dance and attend the theatre will no longer be liable to expulsion if recommendations made by a sub-committee of the general conference which has been considering the question of amusements are adopted by the committee on such.

By a vote of ten to eight the sub-committee recommended the elimination from the book of discipline the clause prohibiting these amusements and offered as a substitute an additional paragraph in which warning is made against the diversion. A minority report was submitted advising the retention of the paragraph as it now stands.

It was maintained by those favoring removal of the restriction that the penalty now provided is not enforced in any church that the effect upon young people will be much greater if a provision that cannot be enforced is withdrawn and a general warning issued that the church does not sanction "dancing, playing games of chance, attending theatres, horse races, circuses, dancing parties or patronizing dancing schools."

Opposition to the change is based on the allegation that it means the church is "letting down the bars."

The conference was brought to a high pitch of excitement today by a proposal to place the church on record as endorsing the preferential shop which was charged will lead later to the closed. If this is adopted, according to the delegates who spoke in opposition, it will place the church in the position of specifically endorsing the methods of labor unions and will result in the abolition of the publishing system in the publishing plants shop of the Methodist book concerns in Cincinnati and Chicago.

Although technically "open" the plant at New York City now employs only union labor.

Speakers who sought favorable action asserted that such a stand is necessary if the church is to hope ever to win the friendship of labor men.

Atlantic Fleet's
First Line to Be Reorganized

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 13.—Reorganization of the first line of the Atlantic fleet was ordered today by Secretary Daniels so as to place six of the older battleships in reserve and release a large part of their crews to man a destroyer division and the new dreadnoughts Oklahoma and Nevada.

The New Jersey, Virginia, Rhode Island, Nebraska, Connecticut and Louisiana will be placed in the new first line in shape for active service within forty-eight hours.

About 4,200 men made available by the change will be divided between six destroyers and the new dreadnoughts. Sixteen big battleships in four divisions will constitute the new first line of the fleet.

Carranza Orders Mexican Teachers to Come Home

By the Associated Press.
Mexico City, May 12.—It is reported here that General Carranza has cabled all the Mexican school teachers now visiting in the United States to return at once to Mexico. Most of the teachers are said to be in New England.

General Obregon, minister of war, is expected to arrive here Sunday.

WHERE NATIONAL GUARD WILL MOBILIZE IF IT'S CALLED OUT

The more threatening the Mexican situation becomes, the greater the likelihood that the National Guard will be called into service along the border. President Wilson has already called out the Guard of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. The map shows the states which embrace four important divisions of the Guard, and the places where the militia will mobilize in case it is called out.

EXPECT AGREEMENT ON ARMY BILL TODAY

STATE FEDERAL VOLUNTEER PLAN ABANDONED AND GUARD TO BE FEDERALIZED.

House Nitrate Plant Section Is Accepted—Peace Force to Aggregate 175,000.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, May 12.—Agreement of the senate and house conferees on the army reorganization bill is expected to be reached tomorrow and the committee tonight ordered a tentative print of its report with a few sections still left in dispute. A deadlock was in prospect after a stormy morning session, but this afternoon the conference was calm and results came quickly. So far as could be learned tonight the regular army to be provided by the bill would aggregate 175,000 fighting men in time of peace, organized in accordance with the elastic scheme provided in the senate bill so that it might be expanded to 218,000 men in an emergency. The National guard would aggregate 400,000 men required to take an oath of allegiance to the national government and to be subject to presentation on the general staff of the army. The house amendment to the government nitrate plant section of the senate bill has been accepted. The senate federal volunteer army plan has been abandoned.

"I think it can be safely said that we will agree on a report and that the agreement will come tomorrow," said Senator Chamberlain.

Sought Malaria Cure; Now Victims of Drug Habit

By the Associated Press.
Milwaukee, Wis., May 12.—The story of an ambitious young doctor and his wife, a graduate nurse, who four years ago went into the malarial swamps of Louisiana with high hopes of winning fame and fortune with a new treatment for malaria that would abolish the use of opiates and narcotics, was told in district court today when Dr. J. P. Dexter, emaciated and broken in health and age, was charged with forgery. A technical charge of vagrancy was preferred against Mrs. Dexter. She is addicted to the use of a drug also, she admitted, and efforts are being made to help her.

The case against Dexter was held open and that of his wife was continued. Dexter was sent to the hospital for the insane for treatment.

The physician claimed he and his wife contracted malaria in the South and the drug habit was formed while under treatment for the disease. Dexter admitted having forged checks to get money by which he could reach a sanitarium.

CAPITAL OF IDAHO EXPERIENCES VIOLENT EARTHQUAKE SHOCK

By the Associated Press.

Boise, Idaho, May 12.—Boise experienced early tonight the most violent earthquake in the history of the city. The tremor which occurred at 7:26 o'clock lasted about three seconds and was more in the nature of an upheaval than a wave. In the downtown district persons rushed from the buildings to the streets.

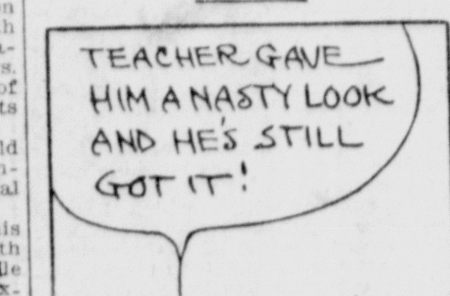

Tonight's tremor was the second in a fortnight, the first having been recorded on April 30. At Weiser, sixty miles west, the quake was felt with exceptional violence. A new gas well in which a flow was struck ten days ago showed remarkable increase of pressure immediately after the quake. The flow caught fire tonight and hundreds of persons watched the shooting flames. In Boise several brick chimneys were wrecked. The tremor was not felt east of Emmett. Twenty-five miles north at Emmett the quake was violent and alarmed the inhabitants. Nampa, to the south also felt the shock, as did Idaho City, thirty-six miles north. Windows rattled at Payette.

NO OFFERS OF PEACE SAYS LORD CECIL

BRITISH MINISTER WAR TRADE SEES NO BASIS FOR NEGOTIATION.

Increasing Rumors of Overtures Are Claimed to Indicate Desperate Straits.

By the Associated Press.

London, May 12.—"The latest peace overtures said to be of German origin while not as insistent and imposing as previous statements on the same subject certainly do not yet offer a basis for negotiations," said Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade in discussing with the Associated Press the latest German peace terms.

"We never have received either officially or unofficially any direct peace suggestions from Germany and we are aware of no such overtures," said Lord Robert Cecil. "We would not think of discussing or even considering any overtures without consulting our allies. No formal or informal conference for this purpose ever has taken place."

"In diplomatic circles a neutral is hardly likely to make any suggestion of peace terms unless certain they are acceptable to the recipient. If Germany should decide to approach us through the medium of the United States the latest overtures would have to be used as a basis for judgment as to whether or not to deliver the request."

While disclaiming any knowledge of the condition of Germany Lord Robert declared that increasing rumors of peace overtures indicate there is some truth to the story that the central powers are in desperate straits.

Failure of Conference at El Paso Has Brought No Change in Policy for the United States. Should Raiding Be Renewed More State Troops Will Be Called Out.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, May 12.—Failure of the military conference at El Paso to reach a definite agreement has brought no change in the policy toward Mexico of the Washington administration.

President Wilson and his cabinet today discussed General Scott's report announcing that the question at issue had been referred back by the conferees to their respective governments for diplomatic discussion. Later it was officially stated that the situation was unchanged.

There was no evidence among administration officials of concern over border events. President Wilson left this afternoon for a week end trip down Chesapeake bay on the naval yacht Mayflower. Secretary Baker went to Atlantic City and Newark, N. J., and will not return until Sunday.

SCOTT'S REPORT NOT MADE PUBLIC.

The text of General Scott's report of his final decisions has not been published. There are indications, however, that he arrived at something in the nature of a "gentleman's understanding" with the Mexican war minister though it possibly had no more definite form than a statement by each side of what steps is purposed taking toward checking raiding along the Texas border.

Pending new orders from the president, it was made plain at the war department, that General Pershing's expedition would remain in Mexico watching developments beyond the border.

WILL NOT HESITATE TO GO INTO MEXICO.

Should raiding be renewed additional state troops will be called out for border duty and wherever the bandits leave a hot trail the army will not hesitate to pursue them into Mexico. An indication of the attitude of some members of congress toward the suggestion of General Carranza that the American expedition be recalled came in the senate today when Senator Lewis declared he believed the majority of the senate would never vote for withdrawal until the murderers of Americans had been punished.

Neither Secretary Lansing nor Elizo Arredondo, Carranza's ambassador designate, took any steps during the day toward renewing diplomatic discussion of points that arose at the El Paso conference. Mr. Arredondo was awaiting instructions from his government.

Secretary Lansing will discuss matters with General Scott on his return next week before taking up informal communications with the Mexican ambassador. There was nothing to indicate any desire to press matters on either side.

Report Dash Across Border To Rescue Bandits' Prisoner

By the Associated Press.
Marathon, Tex., May 12.—Reports reaching here tonight indicate that Major George Langhorne and troops A and B, eighth cavalry, have again dashed across the Rio Grande in an effort to surprise the bandits holding Jesse Deemer a prisoner.

R. R. Hasbrouck, an assayer employed by a Bouquillas mining concern and now a government scout, arrived here today with messages for Captain Chambers at Marathon. He is said to have told personal friends that Col. F. W. Sibbey, in command of the Big Bend expeditionary force would order Major Langhorne to reinstate Mexico as it was believed that negotiations for an exchange of prisoners between Langhorne and the bandits had fallen through.

Capt. John Chambers, base commander is planning to establish two motor truck relay stations on the Marathon-Bouquillas road.

The 127th company of coast artillery, numbering 150 men, will arrive early tomorrow. Part of the company will reinforce the local garrison while the remainder will be used as guards along the Marathon-Bouquillas road, leading to Colonel Sibbey's expeditionary column. It was originally intended to camp the entire company at Marathon, but in view of the sniping of yesterday and the present length of the communication lines, Capt. Chambers decided to change the disposition of the troops.

Requisition for an additional motor truck section made several days ago is expected to be honored by the war department shortly.

Fort Sam Houston Military Center of United States

By the Associated Press.
San Antonio, May 12.—Three companies of coast artillery, ordered from the coast defense to the Mexican border, passed through here tonight. Two which went tonight to El Paso early were companies 20 and 71, from Pensacola, Fla. This morning the 127th company was here a part of the Big Bend expeditionary force.

Headquarters was advised that the 193rd company will take the Texas and Pacific at Fort Worth tonight for El Paso. It is from Fort Howard, Maryland.

The remaining seven companies of the eleven ordered to border service will mobilize at Fort Sam Houston. They are expected to begin to arrive tomorrow.

The three batteries of the Third Field artillery from Tobyhanna, Pa., will remain here for some time at least. The Third infantry from New York has been ordered to Eagle Pass and is on the way.

Capt. J. H. Southern, department headquarters tonight that in all probability the mobilization will be complete by Sunday. Fort Sam Houston then will have the largest military camp of the United States in fact, will be the military center. No soldiers will be left in the entire country except coast defense companies.

Modern Bluebeard Decoyed Women by Marriage Promises

By the Associated Press.
Budapest, May 12, via London.—Further official investigation in the case of the modern bluebeard in the village of Cinkota, who it develops, was known as Bela Kiss, shows that the man made a practice for years, according to the police, of decoying women by marriage advertisements, obtaining their money on marriage promises and then murdering them.

The police have a record of eighteen women whom Kiss was at various times associated with, eight of whom have long been reported as missing while the ten others have not yet been found. In the house he had occupied were discovered packages of love letters from all parts of the world, including the United States.

Four of seven sealed leaden cases found in the dwelling of strangled women while in the fourth were seven women's dresses. One was identified as belonging to a young woman who had been missing for ten years.

There appeared to be no doubt that Kiss died at Valjevo, Serbia, as reported previously. Although he generously worked, he spent money so generously that he was known generally as the "American uncle."

Two Shots Fired from Mexico Near Brownsville

By the Associated Press.
Brownsville, May 12.—Two shots fired from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande on two United States cavalrymen patrolling the border early today caused a complete stoppage of traffic through American Consul J. H. Johnson. Several shots have been fired across the river in the vicinity lately.

Gen. Alfredo Ricourt, commanding at Matamoros, has promised a more vigilant patrol on the Mexican side.

THE "ENDLESS CHAIN" DANGER OF CATARRH

S. S. S. THE PROPER SAFEGUARD

Catarrh is the offspring of "cold." It is a "cold" in its chronic form. The air is filled with bacteria, which is taken into the mouth and nose through the process of breathing. When the body is in a healthy condition no harm results. But with our modern methods of indoor living and sedentary occupations, the mucous membranes are usually not able to "throw off" this harmful bacteria, making catarrh a very common ailment. These germs breed and multiply, causing inflammation, the blood rushes to the membranes to fight off the bacilli. When the blood in a vigorous condition, the "defensive" efforts are successful. Otherwise the cold "hangs on"—turns into a chronic catarrh. Mucous membranes are the lining on all the internal cavities of the body. Get that "All cavities." There is the "endless chain" element of danger. If allowed to run on, the catarrh will affect not only the nose, but the throat and ear, making you liable to deafness, pulmonary and other troubles. Local applications are useless. The only correct way to treat this dread disease is to purify the blood. The surest way to purify the blood is to take S. S. S., which has been the standard blood medicine for fifty years. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable compound. It will not injure the most delicate stomach. You can get S. S. S. at every reputable drug store, or write to an expert medical department which will be glad to give you any special advice you may desire without charge. ## RAID ON SANDERSON, TEXAS RUMORED; ALL WIRES CUT

Special to the Morning News.
San Antonio, May 12.—Rumors reached here late tonight that Villa bandits had again crossed the border and raided Sanderson. All efforts to get telegraphic or telephonic communication with Sanderson have failed and it is believed that all wires leading out of that town have been cut.

No details as to the rumored raid have been received and every effort is being made to get at the exact facts. It is feared that some of the conspirators working with those arrested in the last few days in and around Corpus Christi may have gathered at Sanderson, cut the wires and attacked the town.

Dallas Judge Holds Suspended Sentence Act Unconstitutional

Special to the Morning News.
Dallas, May 12.—The suspended sentence act was held unconstitutional today by Judge R. E. Say of the criminal district court.

Judge Say handed down a written opinion in which he expressed his opinion of criminal appeals to pass upon the question in such a manner that trial courts will know just what to do.

In the case at bar, the defendant had asked for a suspended sentence. "The state started to introduce witnesses in its previous record and attorneys objected. Since the suspended sentence is, in effect, a pardon, Judge Say says, the pardon board, the jury, should be allowed to know the full facts, he insists.

Secretary Baker Urges Three-fold Mobilization

By the Associated Press.
Atlantic City, N. J., May 12.—Secretary of War Baker in an address before the annual convention of the New Jersey State Bankers' association, tonight urged a permanent adjustment of the nation's affairs with a view to a three-fold mobilization of its resources in case of war. Industrial and financial preparedness, he said, were as essential as military preparedness. His only reference to the Mexican situation was that a solution to the "problem" appeared near at hand.

Lower California Coast Patrolled by British Cruiser

By the Associated Press.
San Diego, Cal., May 12.—The British auxiliary cruiser Rainbow is patrolling constantly the waters off the lower coast of Mexico, according to officers of the Chilean steamer Golden Gate, arriving here today from Mazatlan and Lower California ports.

Two German sailors and the Mexican purser of the American schooner Oregon, seized off Mazatlan by the Rainbow, are held prisoners on the cruiser.

Sir Edward Grey in Favor of League to Enforce Peace

By the Associated Press.
New York, May 12.—Theodore Marburg of Baltimore, former United States minister to Belgium, at a dinner given by him here tonight to members of the league to enforce peace, told of an interview he had with Sir Edward Grey, in which the English foreign minister said he was wholly in favor of the plan of the league to enforce peace.

This proposal is that a league of the great powers be formed at the close of the war in Europe to guarantee a lasting peace by pledging the use of their joint forces, together with economic pressure against any signatory nation which shall refuse to keep the agreement to try arbitration methods before beginning hostilities or declaring war.

Suffragettes Plan Monument to Bailey

Special to the Morning News.
Dallas, May 12.—A campaign to raise a fund for a "monument" for former United States Senator Joseph F. Bailey was launched here today at the close of the annual convention of the Texas Woman's Suffrage association. One hundred dollars was subscribed while the resolution was being read.

The "monument" will consist of a suffrage propaganda carried on by the contributions to the "monument fund." Former Senator Bailey was known as an ardent anti-suffragist.

Berlin Newspapers Get Real Text of Lansing's Note

By the Associated Press.
Berlin, May 12.—Via wireless to Sayville—"Berlin newspapers," says the Overseas News agency today, "now publish the authentic text of Secretary Lansing's statement regarding the German note and Anglo-American relations. They point out that this text differs in essential points from the text as reported by Reuters a few days ago. The Reuters text hinted in obscure phrases at political treaty obligations existing between the United States and Great Britain. 'A certain disclaimer was created by this text that Ambassador Gerard in an interview had referred to the United States constitution and denied the effect of such an alliance.' The majority of the German newspapers maintain an attitude of expectation and reserve. The newspapers now declare that Secretary Lansing's real words, according to the authentic text are not obscure, as they do not refer to any practical alliance but to an arbitration treaty."

Modern Bluebeard Decoyed Women by Marriage Promises

By the Associated Press.
Budapest, May 12, via London.—Further official investigation in the case of the modern bluebeard in the village of Cinkota, who it develops, was known as Bela Kiss, shows that the man made a practice for years, according to the police, of decoying women by marriage advertisements, obtaining their money on marriage promises and then murdering them. The police have a record of eighteen women whom Kiss was at various times associated, eight of whom have long been reported as missing while the ten others have not yet been found. In the house he had occupied were discovered packages of love letters from all parts of the world, including the United States. Four of seven sealed leaden cases found in the dwelling were opened. Three contained the bodies of strangled women while in the fourth were several women's dresses. One was identified as belonging to a young woman who had been missing for ten years. There appears to be no doubt that Kiss died at Valjevo, Serbia, as reported previously. Although he rarely worked, he spent money so generously that he was known generally as the "American uncle."

Two Shots Fired from Mexico Near Brownsville

By the Associated Press.
Brownsville, May 12.—Two shots fired from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande on two United States cavalrymen patrolling the border early today caused a complaint to be made tonight to Carranza authorities at Matamoros through American Consul J. H. Johnson. Several shots have been fired across the river in that vicinity since Gen. Alfredo Ricourt, commanding at Matamoros, has promised a more vigilant patrol on the Mexican side.

THE "ENDLESS CHAIN" DANGER OF CATARRH

S. S. S. THE PROPER SAFEGUARD

Catarrh is the offspring of "solids." It is a "cold" with bacteria, which is taken into the mouth and nose through the process of breathing. When the body is in a healthy condition no harm results. But with our modern methods of indoor living and sanitary occupations, the mucous membranes are usually not able to "throw-off" this harmful bacteria, making catarrh a very common ailment. These germs breed and multiply, causing inflammation, the blood rushes to the membranes to fight off the bacilli. When the blood is in a vigorous condition, the "defensive" efforts are successful. Otherwise the cold "hangs-on"—turns into catarrh. Catarrh is a chronic inflammation of the mucous membranes. Mucous membranes are the lining on all the internal cavities of the body. Get that—ALL cavities. There is no "endless chain" element of danger. If allowed to run on, the catarrh will affect not only the nose, but the throat, pulmonary and other troubles. Local applications are useless. The only correct way to treat this dread disease is to purify the blood. The surest way to purify the blood is to take S. S. S., which has been the standard blood medicine for fifty years. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable compound. It will not injure the most delicate stomach. You can get S. S. S. at every reputable drug store. We have an expert Medical Department which will be glad to give you any special advice you may desire without charge. ## RAID ON SANDERSON, TEXAS RUMORED; ALL WIRES CUT

Special to the Morning News.

San Antonio, May 12.—Rumors reached here late tonight that Villa bandits had again crossed the border and raided Sanderson. All efforts to get telegraphic or telephonic communication with Sanderson have failed and it is believed that all wires leading out of that town have been cut.

No details as to the rumored raid have been received and every effort is being made to get at the exact facts. It is feared that some of the conspirators working with these arrested in the last few days in and around Corpus Christi may have gathered at Sanderson, cut the wires and attacked the town.

Dallas Judge Holds Suspended Sentence Act Unconstitutional

Special to the Morning News.

Dallas, May 12.—The suspended sentence act was held unconstitutional today by Judge R. B. Seay of the criminal district court. Judge Seay handed down a written opinion in which he requested the court of criminal appeals to pass upon the question in such a manner that trial courts will know just what to do. In the case at bar, the defendant had asked for a suspended sentence. The state started to introduce witnesses as to his previous record, and the attorneys objected. Since the suspended sentence obnoxious, a pardon, Judge Seay says, in effect, a pardon, Judge Seay says, the pardon board, the jury, should be allowed to know the full facts, he insists.

Secretary Baker Urges Three-fold Mobilization

By the Associated Press.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 12.—Secretary of War Baker in an address before the annual convention of the New Jersey State Bankers' association, tonight urged a permanent adjustment of the nation's affairs with a view to a three-fold mobilization of its resources in case of war. Industrial and financial preparedness, he said, were as essential as military preparedness. His only reference to the Mexican situation was that a solution to the "problem" appeared near at hand.

Lower California Coast Patrolled by British Cruiser

By the Associated Press.

San Diego, Cal., May 12.—The British auxiliary cruiser Rainbow is patrolling constantly the waters off the lower coast of Mexico, according to officers of the Chilean steamer Golden Gate, arriving here today from Mazatlan and Lower California ports. Two German sailors and the Mexican pursuer of the American schooner Oregon, seized off Mazatlan by the Rainbow, are held prisoners on the cruiser.

Sir Edward Grey in Favor of League to Enforce Peace

By the Associated Press.

New York, May 12.—Theodore Marburg of Baltimore, former United States minister to Belgium, at a dinner given by him here tonight to members of the league to enforce peace, told of an interview he had with Sir Edward Grey, in which the English foreign minister said he was wholly in favor of the plan of the league to enforce peace.

This proposal is that a league of the great powers be formed at the close of the war in Europe to guarantee a lasting peace by pledging the use of their joint forces, together with economic pressure against any signatory nation which shall refuse to keep the agreement to try arbitral methods before beginning hostilities or declaring war.

TO KEEP HER FROM FALLING

Would Have to Catch Hold of Things. Lost Strength and Flesh. Doctor Recommended Cardui. Results Gratifying.

Brookhaven, Miss.—"I am in fine health now," writes Mrs. H. M. Russell, of R. F. D. 5, of this place, "and have been for some time. I owe this good health to Cardui. I am certain. I think I would have been dead before this if I had not taken this medicine. I was down in bed five months last summer. I had chronic inflammation. ... so the doctor said. I suffered untold misery, mostly in my right side, but both sides hurt me—aching constantly. I got to the place where I couldn't even eat without severe pain. I had much headache and would often be quite blind from dizziness. I would have to catch hold of things to keep from falling. I lost all my strength and flesh. I became so poor that I was just bones covered with skin. The doctor said, 'Get Cardui and go to taking it.' I took eight bottles in 3 months. In just a few days after starting with it, I began to improve and kept on until I got completely well. Today I am in really good health. I can do anything in the world in the shape of work. I am sure that I owe this all to Cardui. I would like to tell all women so."

Try Cardui for your troubles. For sale by all druggists.

MISS LOUISE BAKER AT HOME FOR GUESTS ON SUNDAY

The Misses Mary Anderson and Mary Alice Cochran, of Houston, have arrived on a visit to Miss Louise Baker out at Jack-Bill-Lou. Miss Baker is giving invitations informally for Sunday afternoon calls, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock.

BACHELOR MAIDS PLAY WITH MISS JANET GORMAN

Only one absentee is reported from the Bachelor Maids' club which played its present week game with Miss Janet Gorman. Mrs. Edwin Drake, as visitor, into the game made high score. Next week the club plays with its president, Miss Harriet Morse.

EQUAL FRANCHISE CLUB PRESENTS MISS STEARNES

Members of the Equal Franchise club invite every man and woman in this city, without admission price or collection of any kind, to hear Miss Luit Stearnes of Wisconsin, this evening on campus of Baylor university. The university has kindly allowed seats and stage to remain from the Ben Greet engagement, so all will be comfortable. Miss Stearnes is an entertaining talker, full of wit as well as wisdom.

WORKING GIRLS' CLUB HAS SPECIAL PROGRAM

Twenty-four girls who enjoyed weekly lunch with the Working Girls' club, also enjoyed a short talk on "Helping Others" from Mrs. J. M. Dawson, and a musical program. The club is much encouraged. The attendance is good and the girls all seem much interested. The luncheon is served weekly by individual contribution.

MRS. ED HOUSTON HOSTESS FOR HER CLUB

In the last round of hostesses, the Thursday Auction Bridge club has found some members withdrawn. Thus, in entertaining last, Mrs. Ed Houston provided two tables only, with Mrs. Frances Flewellyn as luncheon caller. By happy coincidence, Mrs. Flewellyn made the lucky cut. The club plate was won by Mrs. Charles Cochran. The only visitor playing a hand was Mrs. Brittenham from Oklahoma City. For the coming Thursday, Mrs. Forest Goodman is hostess.

BRIDAL BRIDGE CLUB WITH MRS. ROBERT SILVERS

Playing with Mrs. Robert Silvers as hostess for the Bridal Bridge club, only two substitute guests were present. These were Mrs. Jared Simmons and Miss Mame Silvers from California. In counts, Mrs. Sam Strauss scored high for club members, and Mrs. Simmons for guest, whose score, played for Mrs. Al Marks, presents Mrs. Marks a game souvenir. Next, the club plays with Mrs. Harry Archibald. There is a decided preference for change of name with this club.

SOCIAL NEEDLECRAFT WITH MRS. H. A. BARRON

Enjoying another of their afternoon reunions as well as electing a new roster of officers, the members of the Social Needlecraft were entertained by Mrs. Hollis Barron. Guests to meet the club members were the Mesdames N. J. Register and J. T. Frazer. Elected to office were, president, Mrs. H. L. Stewart; vice president, Mrs. Lee Bassett; treasurer, Mrs. L. J. Kestler. The next afternoon will be spent with Mrs. J. T. Houser. Mrs. Barron interrupted the fancy work by introducing a merry contest, that of sewing with left hand. Winners were the Mesdames R. L. Teaff and H. L. Stewart.

MERRY ROBINS MEET WITH MRS. CORNFORTH

As the Merry Robins have come to know that a session with Mrs. Wallace Cornforth is a good time hour. However, the last was not so happy since it was not to come again. Mrs. Cornforth is moving to Iowa Park early in June. In entertaining her club, she had as special guests the Mesdames Weston Rucker, Thomas Andrews, James Smith, Fred Cornforth, Alice Trice and J. O. Rucker with Misses Kate Andrews, Kathleen Trice and Norma Harden. Mrs. Earnest Brewster will entertain next. Mrs. Cornforth filled her company rooms to overflowing with Dorothy Perkins buds and stems. As she left to bring forward her luncheon plate, club and friendship gifts for the new home. This, it goes without saying, was happy surprise. The future reminder of fancy work days and the Merry Robins, is a set of table napkins, hand-embroidered.

YOUNG MATRONS HONORED IN W. W. KENDALL HOME

Selecting from among the younger friends of their extensive acquaintance, one hundred and fifty, Mrs. W. W. Kendall and Miss Elizabeth Speight, invited callers for two hours of the afternoon. This was in compliment to the visit from Dublin of their sister, Mrs. Maurice Reid, of the return from wedding journey of Mrs. Eugene McGlasson, and in welcome as bride to Mrs. Luther Penland. Mrs. J. M. Dawson was still another preferred guest of this very enjoyable afternoon. The Kendall home is classed among the most picturesque in all Waco, hence the approach to the old colonial house was in keeping with the bloom about the company rooms. White, the bridal wreath for one, the Dorothy Perkins for another, was among the floral setting. One device, much complimented, was the sandwich basket with bundle bunched in Dorothy Perkins buds. With the sandwich the cooling cup of punch was offered by the younger girls of the house party.

At each station was cordial greeting. In all the rooms was agreeable company. Two mothers, the Mesdames Turner and Darden of Dallas, were present. Among the callers were out-of-town visitors. The tiny Reid sisters held the card baskets. Remaining with Mrs. Kendall and Miss Speight for the two hours were, the Misses Mary Belle Wood, Hallie Jenkins, Jessie Truett, Ethel Standifer, Frances Standifer, Janet Standifer, Genoa Whittinghill, and Bianca McKenney with the Mesdames John T. Kelly, John R. Fisher, J. G. Kendall, W. Early, Thomas Dockery, Walter King, Joseph Speight, W. H. Jenkins, Lee Daniel, W. W. Massey, B. B. McReynolds, Adolph Braun, L. B. Smyth, Earnest McKenney, John Dockery, and T. F. Bryan.

CURRENT EVENT CLOSES WITH MATINEE MUSICALS

Through personal invitations of members, a full half hundred are indebted to the Current Event club for a delightful musical, out at the Huaco club. These are also indebted to the Salon who responded to request of Miss Minnie Johnston as director, for the unusually ambitious numbers given so artistically. Postponed as this musical had been, the absence of Mrs. G. J. Rousseau was regretted. Other than this, the original order was observed. Every number was encored, and many were the compliments paid musicians during the social hour. Those who appeared were, Mrs. R. B. Kilgough, piano; Mrs. Gaylord Bebout, voice; the Misses Johnston, Juanita Smith and Sallie Keith, voice trio; Mrs. B. H. Schroeder, piano; Mrs. J. W. Carroll, piano and accompanist; the Misses Johnston and Keith, voice solos. Mrs. Wigley as president gave the word of welcome. After the last

SUFFRAGE WORKER IN JUNE 7 PARADE

Mrs. Joseph L. Bowen.

One of the prominent women who will march in the Chicago suffrage parade on June 7 is Mrs. Joseph L. Bowen, who was responsible for the establishment of the juvenile court in Chicago and the various courts that grew out of it, such as the court of domestic relations, the morals court, and the girls' court. She was instrumental in securing the investigation of public dance halls and in prohibiting the sale of liquor in them, and her work for suffrage has been extremely active.

number, the club summer room was opened to disclose a quartette of serving misses who, by their white frocks and blue taffeta aprons, added another in the pretty effects. These were the Misses Hester Foster, Katherine Risher, Alleyne Spencer and Eleanor Cameron.

Based by Dorothy Perkins mats, repetition of the hundreds vased in the music room, the punch bowl sat, several on small tables. In the reception hall, the larkspur gardens had been sacked for the purple of the Current Event colors. Members of the club were hostesses. This brought the year to adjournment. A number of out-of-town guests were included. These "old" but have been impressed with the Current Event club as a body of gracious as well as intellectual women. Noticed among the guests were, the Mesdames W. W. Woodson, Thomas Coffey, E. R. Winkler, R. B. Cobb, H. B. Miest, J. J. Durham, R. L. Cartwright, E. L. Farley, Walter Reese, Thomas McCullough, J. R. ### Society Notes

Mrs. George Willig is scheduled to close her Austin avenue home with early June. She goes for visits in Kentucky, Arkansas and Tennessee.

Today notes the departure of Miss Lucretia Crawford who has been down from Chicago, winter guest of Mrs. J. W. Bass. Miss Crawford is returning home by way of Denver where she joins bridal party of a friend.

In returning from Milford college late this month, Miss Charlie Ted will be at home but a short while. She then goes for an extended visit with relatives in St. Louis.

Since her call to Nashville by illness of her mother, six weeks ago, Mrs. Alfred Edwards of West Columbia, remains absent with no determined plans for the summer.

Mrs. Frances Luede is out from her prolonged and severe illness. Just as soon as she gathers a little strength she is off for the mountains of Virginia or thereabouts.

Ed Humphries is dinner host at the Huaco club on Sunday evening.

Among departures within the next few days will be that of Mrs. J. W. Bass of West Austin, who goes to Chicago for several weeks.

Miss Julia Smith has named Tuesday for her homecoming to Paris.

Mrs. Jessie Penix of Columbus street was hostess to bridge guests on Thursday afternoon in compliment to her visitor, Mrs. George Jackson from Texas.

With Mrs. G. J. Rousseau gone in advance, Miss Pyrene Allen and Mrs. J. W. Byars will be among the Waco women to leave on Monday for the Southern Baptist convention in Asheville.

window boxes as we had hoped. What is the matter with the women? Have they no more pride of their husbands' daily surroundings? A few geraniums and a spray of solias, will make a beautiful effect. A few scattering evidences of civic pride are seen, but why not an avenue, both Austin and Franklin? If you wish the effect take a look at the Raleigh dining room exterior.

Speaking of beauty spots, it is worth turning into Franklin just to see the wonderful transformation in State House park.

As one of the social attentions during convention of the Christian women, Mrs. J. R. Milam had a circle of old time friends as luncheon guests on Thursday.

It is interesting, is it not, to hear the summer plans as these materialize?

Remember, tomorrow is annual Mother Day. How many are going to write the absent mother a letter? How many more are going to send the present mother a flower?

Miss Marian Dilworth of Green Acres leaves within a few days for a visit with Miss Anna Dilworth in Gilmer. The two return home with the last week in May.

In the last session of the Press club, Mrs. George King afforded quite a pleasant au revoir hour.

Why is it that nobody has ever thought of a garden garden bridge? This could be made both picturesque and enjoyable for a hot summer morning or late afternoon.

Society Personals

Miss Hazel Spencer, Fourteenth and Columbus, left Friday to be guest of Mrs. J. R. Milam, in Austin.

Miss Ellis May Harlan, who was guest of Miss Hazel Spencer, returned home to Dallas on Friday.

TO KEEP HER FROM FALLING

Would Have to Catch Hold of Things. Lost Strength and Flesh. Doctor Recommended Cardui. Results Gratifying.

Brookhaven, Miss.—"I am in fine health now," writes Mrs. H. M. Russell, of R. F. D. 5, of this place, "and have been for some time. I owe this good health to Cardui. I am certain. I think I would have been dead before this if I had not taken this medicine. I was down in bed five months last summer. I had chronic inflammation of the uterus, and it was so bad that I suffered untold misery, mostly in my right side, but both sides hurt me—aching constantly. I got to the place where I couldn't even eat without severe pain. I had much headache and would often be quite blind from dizziness. I would have to catch hold of things to keep from falling. I lost all my strength and flesh. I became so poor that I was just bones covered with skin. On his visit told me to get Cardui and go to taking it. I took eight bottles in 3 months. In just a few days after starting with it, I began to improve and kept on until I got completely well. Today I am in really good health. I can do anything in the world in the shape of work. I am sure that I owe this all to Cardui. I would like to tell all women so."

Try Cardui for your troubles. For sale by all druggists.

MISS LOUISE BAKER AT HOME FOR GUESTS ON SUNDAY

The Misses Mary Anderson and Mary Alice Cochran, of Houston, have arrived on a visit to Miss Louise Baker out at Jack-Bill-Lou. Miss Baker is giving invitations informally for Sunday afternoon calls, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock.

BACHELOR MAIDS PLAY WITH MISS JANET GORMAN

Only one absentee is reported from the Bachelor Maids' club which played its present week game with Miss Janet Gorman. Mrs. Edwin Drake, as visitor, into the game made high score. Next week the club plays with its president, Miss Harriet Morse.

EQUAL FRANCHISE CLUB PRESENTS MISS STEARN

Members of the Equal Franchise club invite every man and woman in this city, without admission price or collection of any kind, to hear Miss Lute Stearnes of Wisconsin, this evening on campus of Baylor university. The university has kindly allowed seats and stage to remain from the Ben Greet engagement, so all will be comfortable. Miss Stearns is an entertaining talker, full of wit as well as wisdom.

WORKING GIRLS' CLUB HAS SPECIAL PROGRAM

Twenty-four girls who enjoyed weekly lunch with the Working Girls' club, also enjoyed a short talk on "Helping Others" from Mrs. J. M. Dawson, and music, voice duet, by Mrs. Frances Flewellyn and Miss Catherine Garland. The promoters of this club are much encouraged. The attendance is good and the girls all seem much interested. The luncheon is served weekly by individual contribution.

MRS. ED LAUGHLIN HOSTESS FOR HER CLUB

In the last round of hostesses, the Thursday Auction Bridge has found some members withdrawn. Thus, in entertaining last, Mrs. Ed Laughlin provided two tables only, with Mrs. Frances Flewellyn as luncheon caller. By happy coincidence, Mrs. Flewellyn made the lucky cut. The club plate was won by Mrs. Charles Goch. The only visitor playing a hand was Mrs. Brittan from Oklahoma City. For the coming Thursday, Mrs. Forest Goodman is hostess.

BRIDAL BRIDGE CLUB WITH MRS. ROBERT SILVERS

Playing with Mrs. Robert Silvers as hostess for the Bridal Bridge club, only two substitute guests were present. These were Mrs. Jared Simmons and Miss Mamie Silvers from California. In counts, Mrs. Sam Strauss scored high for club members, and Mrs. Simmons for guest, whose score, played for Mrs. Al Marks, presents Mrs. Marks a game souvenir. Next, the club plays with Mrs. Harry Archibald. There is a decided preference for change of name with this club.

SOCIAL NEEDLECRAFT WITH MRS. H. A. BARRON

Enjoying another of their afternoon reunions as well as electing a new roster of officers, the members of the Social Needlecraft were entertained by Mrs. Hollis Barron. Guests to meet

SUFFRAGE WORKER IN JUNE 7 PARADE

Mrs. Joseph L. Bowen.

One of the prominent women who will march in the Chicago suffrage parade on June 7 is Mrs. Joseph L. Bowen, who was responsible for the establishment of the juvenile court in Chicago and the various courts that grew out of it, such as the court of domestic relations, the morals court, and the girls' court. She was instrumental in securing the investigation of public dance halls and in prohibiting the sale of liquor in them and her work for suffrage has been extremely active.

At each station was cordial greeting. In all the rooms was agreeable company. Two mothers, the Messademes Turner and Darden of Dallas, were present. Among the callers were out-of-town visitors. The tiny Reid sisters held the card baskets. Remaining with Mrs. Kendall and Miss Speight for the two hours were the Misses Mary Belle Wood, Hallie Jenkins, Jessie Truett, Ethel Standifer, Frances Standifer, Janet Standifer, Genoa Whittinghill, and Bianca McKenney to the Messademes John T. Kelly, John R. Fisher, G. G. Kendall, W. Early, Thomas Dockery, Walter King, Joseph Speight, W. H. Jenkins, Lee Daniel, W. W. Massey, E. B. McReynolds, Adolph Braun, L. B. Smyth, Earnest McKenney, John Dockery, and T. F. Bryan.

YOUNG MATRONS HONORED IN W. W. KENDALL HOME

Selecting from among the younger friends of their extensive acquaintance, one hundred and fifty, Mrs. W. W. Kendall and Miss Elizabeth Speight, invited callers for two hours of the afternoon. This was in compliment to the Misses from Dallas, the sister, Mrs. Maurice Reid, of the return from wedding journey of Mrs. Eugene McGlasson, and in welcome as bride to Mrs. Luther Penland. Mrs. J. M. Dawson was still another preferred guest of this very enjoyable afternoon. The Kendall home is classed among the most picturesque in all Waco, hence the approach to the old colonial house was in keeping with the bloom about the house. With the sandwich basket with handle bunched in Dorothy Perkins buds. With the sandwich cooling cup of punch was offered by the younger girls of the house party.

In returning from Milford college late this month, Miss Charlie Tod will be at home but a short while. She then goes for an extended visit with relatives in St. Louis.

Since her call to Nashville by illness of her mother, six weeks ago, Mrs. Alfred Edwards of West Columbia, remains absent with no determined plans for the summer.

Miss Frances Luedde is out from her prolonged and severe illness. Just as soon as she gathers a little more strength she is off for the mountains of Virginia or thereabouts.

Ed Humphries is dinner host at the Huaco club on Sunday evening. Among departures within the next few days will be that of Mrs. J. W. Bass of West Austin, who goes to Chicago for several weeks.

Miss Julia Smith has named Tuesday for her home-going to Paris.

Mrs. Jessie Penix of Columbus street was hostess to bridge guests on Thursday afternoon in compliment to her visitor, Mrs. George Jackson from Texas.

With Mrs. G. J. Rousseau gone in advance, Miss Pyrene Allen and Mrs. J. W. Byars will be among the Waco women to leave on Monday for the Southern Baptist convention in Asheville.

REPUBLICANS WILL MEET HERE TODAY

The district republican convention of the Eleventh congressional district will meet this afternoon at the city hall in Waco, preceded by a meeting of the district executive committee at 12 o'clock at the same place.

Dr. George M. Patton of Waco is chairman of the district executive committee, and presumably will preside over the gathering. The district comprises the counties of McLennan, Falls, Bell, Coryell and Hamilton, and the executive committee members who will meet at 12 today are Dr. G. M. Patton, Waco, for McLennan county; J. C. Goudy, Gatesville, J. H. Chiles, Marlin; E. R. Williams, Hamilton; C. H. Jones, Killeen. The secretary of the committee is J. A. Callan, Temple.

The district convention will nominate a presidential elector, and the usual plan is for the state convention to confirm the elector.

Mrs. J. E. Turner, Thirteenth and Jefferson, now contemplates June absence in Colorado.

It is interesting, is it not, to hear the summer plans as these materialize? Remember, tomorrow is annual Mother's Day. How many are going to write the absent mother a letter? How many more are going to send the present mother a flower?

Miss Marian Dilworth of Green Acres leaves within a few days for a visit with Miss Anna Dilworth in Gilmer. The two return home with the last week in May.

In the last session of the Press club, Mrs. George King afforded quite a pleasant au revoir hour.

Why is it that nobody has ever thought of a garden game of bridge? This could be made both picturesque and enjoyable for a hot summer morning or late afternoon.

Society Personals

Miss Hazel Spencer, Fourteenth and Columbus, left with Friday to be guest of her aunt, Mrs. Butte, in Austin.

Miss Ella May Harlan, who was guest of Miss Hazel Spencer, returned home to Dallas on Friday.

The Messademes James Mattson and Tillman of Hubbard City were guests of Mrs. J. R. Milam for the Ben Greet engagement.

Mrs. J. P. Sample of Austin avenue left Friday for San Antonio.

Mrs. D. D. Fairchild of Taylor is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Flora Cameron, Austin avenue.

Mrs. W. E. Colgin of West Austin is at home from Dallas.

Mrs. W. H. Jenkins of South Fifth street has returned from Dallas.

On Monday Mrs. A. E. Turner of Dallas who has spent the past few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Dawson, South Fifth street, leaves for several visits in South Texas.

Mrs. George Darden is down from Dallas, guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Speight, North Eleventh street.

Among today's departures will be that of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wallace for their home in San Francisco. They have spent several weeks with Mrs. Wallace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gardner, North Eleventh street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Rogers of South Fifth street leave today for Alabama and Florida.

Mrs. Cecelia Archer who was called from San Antonio by the death of her father, Major Robert Donnell, has returned home.

Wild Flowers Respond to Waco Spirit

The remarkable manner in which the stock of wild flowers will spread about is illustrated in striking manner by a big bunch of primroses which show up in good style late in the afternoon in the big excavation which has been made for the Watt hotel at Fifth and Franklin streets. The bed is located on the north side of the excavation, about midway between Fifth street and the Masonic Temple, right down in the bottom of the big hole, but near the north limit of same. How so many seed reached this spot is strange, as the business section is not marked by many primrose beds.

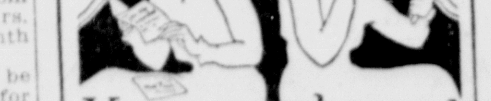

The district republican convention of the Eleventh congressional district will meet this afternoon at the city hall in Waco, preceded by a meeting of the district executive committee at 12 o'clock at the same place.

Dr. George M. Patton of Waco is chairman of the district executive committee, and presumably will preside over the gathering. The district comprises the counties of McLennan, Falls, Bell, Coryell and Hamilton, and the executive committee members who will meet at 12 today are Dr. G. M. Patton, Waco, for McLennan county; J. ### Young people need clear complexions

If you find yourself "left out" because of a poor skin, and want a clear, fresh complexion, use Resinol Soap at least once a day. Wash thoroughly with a warm, creamy lather of it, then rinse the face with plenty of cold water.

It does not often take many days of such regular care with Resinol Soap to show an improvement, because the Resinol medication soothes and refreshes the skin, while the perfectly pure soap is cleansing it.

Resinol Soap

should be aided by a little Resinol Ointment, in severe or stubborn cases. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 26-B, Resinol, Baltimore.

FACE TO FACE WITH HIS WORKS.

(Psalms 107:1-9-23-24)
Oh, that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men.
For He satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.
They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;
These see the works of the Lord, and His wonders in the deep.

QUIBBLING ABOUT A TRIFLE WHILE DESTINY IS ASTIR
The failure of the El Paso conference gives a fresh illustration of the difficulties which hedge about the solution of the Mexican problem. Scott and Funston went into it to arrange a joint campaign against border bandits. Oregon was there to get the American troops out of Mexico. From the Mexican point of view, a question of dignity is more important than a question of public safety.

When his cause hung in the balance, Carranza paused to threaten the United States because of its occupancy of Vera Cruz. It is easily possible that he may again assume a position of hostility. The Carranza government ought to welcome the American soldier. Only through the aid of the Washington government can Carranza and his associates become complete masters of the Mexican situation. In spite of this fact, which has been proved in divers ways, the de facto government seems to be willing to take the chance of a break with Washington in order to prove its patriotism to the ignorant natives, many of whom are in arms against it.

When common sense goes at such a rate of discount, it is not easy to foresee what may happen next in Mexico.

Speaking at Comfort, Governor Ferguson said: "I am appealing to patriotic German friends, not politicians, to stand by the president. There never was a time when the president needed to be upheld more than he does just now. Keep your head cool and retain the faith of your government and aid the national administration in every way possible in this crisis and the United States will continue to be sponsor for the North American continent." The audience evidenced its sympathy with this sentiment. The politician who expected to thrive by taking the anti-American side of the issue drove his ducks to a poor market when he went to the German-American of Texas with them.

With Roosevelt on the track, the democratic party will have an opportunity to show the country the difference between the speed qualities of a slab-sided horse and a runner built after the Kentucky fashion.

Obregon may hold his own in a popular debate, but that doesn't signify that he would walk off with the honors of a howitzer matinee.

HIS HAT IS AGAIN IN THE RING
Everybody knew he was on the edge of doing it, but Roosevelt threw his hat in the ring with a suddenness that surprised even his own following. He tells a league organized to promote his nomination for the presidency that he approves its work and that "I do not have to improvise my convictions on either Americanism or preparedness." Of course, all other convictions but his own are "improvised."

Thus begins in the same old way a campaign which will stand mainly upon a horizontal plumb line with only one letter in it.

Democrats will watch the progress of the Roosevelt movement with complacency. If it were left to them to pick a republican candidate, they would vote almost unanimously for Roosevelt.

Senator Kenyon spoke for two days against the river and harbor appropriations and attacked the Brazos and Trinity projects. After a personal examination of the Brazos, and an endorsement of the plan, Senator Burton took the same course. The number of statesmen who are in favor of keeping freight rates up to the highest notch remains about the same, no matter how much they may fluctuate on other subjects. Senator Kenyon has often fought for appropriations to improve rivers in his neighborhood which were as a spring branch to the Mississippi, compared with the Brazos.

The German chancellor is quoted as having told a committee of the reichstag that his feelings urged him to tell America to mind her own business but policy persuaded him to keep cool. Mr. Hollweg may not guess it, but that strawberry missive we sent him was not as fully expressive of our feelings as it might have been.

It may be that after further reflection Governor Colquitt would be willing to withdraw that gridiron speech at Houston if Governor Ferguson will withdraw his comment. There's where the cow jumped over the moon.

Brownsville democrats endorsed the president with emphasis. Governor Colquitt's "Mexican policy" seems to have received only three votes in the democratic pow-wows and the donors are very quiet about it.

Deposits in the savings banks of Texas reflect the general condition of an excess of idle capital, and industrial apathy. When the flood comes, the tide will roll down like an avalanche.

Mexico has been under so many flags that a new one isn't half as exciting down there as a bull fight.

HOW PLATFORMS ARE BUILT

The difference between the par value and the market value of a convention platform was happily illustrated in the declaration of the democratic county convention, held in Waco last Tuesday, on the subject of prohibition. Eighteen county precincts were not represented. If they had been on hand, the prohibitionists would have had a majority, and could have made a platform for national and state prohibition. The apathy of the farmers, who are all for Wilson and understood that there would be no contest as to him, gave the antis their opportunity, and they took it.

Will the Houston Post, which is clamoring for a return to the convention system, appraise for us the real value of a convention platform written under such circumstances?

Does the Post really believe that the will of the people can be ascertained under procedure which is as misleading as this?

The time is coming, and swiftly coming, when a precinct platform and a county platform will be as obsolete as an ox-yoke on a paved highway. And then the state platform will be made by the people in the primaries, not by a lot of politicians, while playing dominoes, with seltzer, soda and something else on the side.

Mayor Lindsley of Dallas said in a speech before the Equal Suffrage association that woman suffrage is but a step forward in civilization. Mr. Lindsley is a stepper, and he knows.

It was old Dave Culberson who closed one eye sleepily and remarked, "We've done expanded."

Verdun has a ring about it that sounds like a Waterloo for somebody.

Many Texas Baptists Will Attend Convention

Special to the Morning News.

Dallas, Tex., May 12.—The Southern Baptist convention meets this year in Asheville, N. C., May 17. It is one of the largest religious bodies in America, representing more than two and a half million church members. Texas Baptists will be entitled to some five hundred messengers. It is very earnestly desired that a full delegation attend the Asheville meeting. The corresponding secretary of the executive board of the Baptist general convention will be present at Asheville, giving out to messengers properly signed certificates of membership in the convention.

The books of the Texas state board will close accounts for home and foreign missions, Monday, May 15. It is important that all collections for home and foreign missions be in the office in Dallas on or before the date just named. Collections taken after that time will not be counted. Large delegations will leave Waco, Houston and Dallas Monday night.

Rev. Robert Gribble Gets Promotion

Austin, Tex., May 12.—Rev. James O. Reavis, professor in a divinity school at Columbia, S. C., has been elected president of the Austin Presbyterian seminary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. E. Vinson, elected permanent president of the University of Texas. Dr. Reavis was once pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Dallas. Rev. Thomas W. Currie, president of the University of Texas, has been elected to the chair of church history. Rev. Robert Gribble was promoted to be adjunct professor of Hebrew and Old Testament interpretation. He came to the seminary from Waco two years ago.

Longhorns to Meet Southwestern Today

Special to the Morning News.

Austin, Tex., May 12.—The University of Texas Longhorns will meet the Southwestern team in one of the last games of the season tomorrow afternoon on Clark field. The Longhorns have a substantial lead in the percentage column and can hardly lose to the remaining games sufficiently to necessitate their yielding their lead. The only remaining games on the schedule are those with A. and M. to be played here May 16-17. Milton Thibault, coach of the premier southpaw, will in all probability work against McLarty of Southwestern in tomorrow's contest.

Mart Teachers Elected.

Special to the Morning News.

Mart, May 12.—At a meeting of the trustees of the Mart public school last night, the following teachers were elected for the term of 1916 and 1917: Misses Myrtle Gladdish, Rebecca Mann, Addie McMurtry, Grace Gillespie, Ira Killen, Allan May Gladdish, Georgia Tittsworth, Blanch Boyd, Leota Wallace and Sue Nash. There is only two vacancies to fill with grade teachers. The high school teachers are to be elected soon.

To Address Gatesville Graduates.

Special to the Morning News.

Gatesville, May 12.—Tomorrow night Rev. C. R. Haudenschield, who is conducting a revival meeting here, will preach the sermon to the graduating class of the public school. The class number here this year is 3:39 o'clock after which interment was made in the Lorena cemetery. Mr. Kent was the stepfather of Mrs. Frank Barnes of this place.

Candidate for Representative.

Special to the Morning News.

Lorena, May 12.—A. J. Mackey of Lampasas county has announced as a candidate for representative from the ninety-third district, composed of Coryell and Lampasas counties.

Kent Funeral Held.

Special to the Morning News.

Lorena, May 12.—The funeral of C. N. Kent, who dropped dead in Waco yesterday, was held from the Methodist church here this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock after which interment was made in the Lorena cemetery. Mr. Kent was the stepfather of Mrs. Frank Barnes of this place.

A HAVEN OF SAFETY FOR THE ORPHAN.

One work of philanthropy appeals to the common instincts of humanity wherever man has risen above the savage: caring for the orphan. Even the better types of savages show some consideration for children bereft of parents.

An institution which by reason of its service is known far and wide, is Buckner's Orphan Home—a monument to the broad philanthropy and splendid executive ability of a grand old man. His friends, and the friends of the Home, which include pretty much all the people of Texas, will read with interest the last announcement which comes from it:

Buckner's Orphan's Home is nearing its thirty-eighth year of active work and has cared for 10,000 dependents. It is located near Dallas, Texas, but is as much for one part of the state as another. Its founder and managers are Baptists, but it is as much for the orphans of any one denomination as another. In its charter it draws no lines between sects or religions. It is not a child-placing or transfer agency. It educates and trains orphans for the real duties and responsibilities of life, and keeps children of the same parentage together till they are old enough, and prepared to protect and support themselves, and to make their own way as citizens.

It has a daily average of 500 children in the institution. It costs approximately an average of two thousand free meals each day.

It does all this for its own support, but has to depend mainly on voluntary contributions.

As it is open to orphans from anywhere and everywhere, it calls for help from everybody everywhere. It is now needing assistance very seriously.

For further particulars address, R. C. Buckner, Dallas, Texas, Route 3.

Germany promises to punish the submarine commander who sank the Sussex, but it's a safe prediction that she gives him a chance to pay his pantaloons.

Negotiations with Carranza will continue. In the meantime the American flag is moving southward, and shaking out its wrinkles, with each passing breeze.

Adjutant General Plans to Enlarge National Guard

Special to the Morning News.

Austin, Tex., May 12.—Adjutant General Henry Hutchings said today he would not leave for Fort Sam Houston before Monday. He is engaged on plans for organizing a new Texas National guard. General Hutchings did not say how long he would remain at Fort Sam Houston. He is to assist General Funston in the disposition of the state troops.

Waco Minister Is Called to Eddy

Special to the Morning News.

Eddy, May 12.—At a meeting of the members of the Eddy Baptist church, held yesterday, Rev. W. P. Maroney, pastor of the Turner Street Baptist church at Waco, was extended a call to the pastorate here and he has the matter under consideration.

Rev. Mr. Maroney said last night that he was giving the Eddy call prayerful consideration but would not make a decision until after Sunday. He preached his farewell sermon at the Turner street church tomorrow.

Lott Rifles Leave.

Special to the Morning News.

Lott, May 12.—Company L, Texas National Guard, of this place, numbering seventy-three men, entrained for Fort Sam Houston yesterday, being accompanied to the station by one of the largest crowds ever assembled here.

The officers are C. F. Anderson, captain; W. G. Ruble, first lieutenant, and R. E. Postfield, second lieutenant; the membership being composed of our best citizens, among whom are some of our most prominent business men, to whom, aside from leaving the city, this is another loved one, it will mean a great sacrifice from a financial standpoint.

The little city of Lott has again shown, as on previous occasions, that its citizenship is composed of true, loyal hearted Americans, having contributed more men to defend our flag than any other city in the state, according to its size.

Itasca Sends Contingent.

Special to the Morning News.

Itasca, May 12.—Prof. J. J. Godby of Arlington has been elected superintendent of Itasca schools. Grade teachers were selected at a previous meeting, but the principal and several high school teachers are yet to be elected.

Twenty-five militia men left today to join their company at Hillsboro preparatory to embarking for San Antonio for border service. Several new men were enlisted today and yesterday.

Loops of wire, normally separated by a spring handle, form a recently patented implement for handling hot cooking utensils.

Brooks and Campbell Speak at Athens

Special to the Morning News.

Athens, May 12.—S. P. Brooks spoke to a large crowd here yesterday and T. M. Campbell spoke here today. They had about an even break in the way of a crowd. Both Brooks and Campbell men claim the county.

The commencement exercises of the Athens high school have been in progress all the week were closed today. It is generally conceded that the Athens schools are in the best condition they have ever been in. In school exhibit given by all the grades won much praise especially in the department of domestic science and drawing and clay modeling. A. W. Eddins, former head of the reformatory at Gatesville, is superintendent of the schools.

Much improvement is being made in the streets. Here, several miles of paving have been recently completed, and a large part of the streets are to be treated with asphalt at once. A park is being laid off one block from the high school building.

Mrs. McCain Dies at Hamilton.

Special to the Morning News.

Eddy, May 12.—Announcement of the death at Hamilton of Mrs. Alice McCain, sister of Mrs. J. W. Christian, and aunt of Mrs. Dr. Knight, of this city, has been received. Both of these ladies have left to be present at the funeral services.

Trustees Entertain Teachers.

Special to the Morning News.

Lorena, May 12.—The trustees of the Lorena public school entertained the teachers on the Hayou south of town last evening. The principal amusement was the ball game between the teachers, the wives of the trustees and the trustees, the score ending 5 to 3 in favor of the ladies. Dr. Shipps acting as umpire. All report a fine time.

DR. CULVER TO GIVE GRADUATING ADDRESS

MARLIN HIGH SCHOOL SELECTS WACO MINISTER FOR COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER.

Judge Heffner Seeking Name and Home for Negro Baby Found in Potato Patch.

Special to the Morning News.

Marlin, May 12.—A. C. Ferguson, superintendent of the Marlin schools, announced this morning that Rev. W. P. Bryan of the Marlin Methodist church, would preach the commencement sermon Sunday, May 21, and that Dr. P. P. Culver of Waco would make the address to the graduating class the following Monday night when the seniors would receive their diplomas. At the regular weekly assembly meeting in the auditorium this morning, Musical Director Anton Ernst introduced his "Little Orchestra," in which girls take part, and which he stated he hoped to increase to at least fifty members next term. The playing of the new organization was greatly cheered by the audience.

During the morning, letter M's were awarded members of the track team taking first places at the A. and M. and Austin track meets and Superintendent Ferguson made the graduating class a heart to heart talk about their future.

Marlin negroes became very much excited today when a rumor got in circulation that a negro company was to be mustered in from Marlin, many declaring they had nothing against Villa and didn't want to go to war anyway. The author of the rumor cannot be found, but the rumor apparently gains strength among the negroes.

Judge Heffner was presented with a little negro baby this morning which Tom Wilkinson found in his potato patch. The judge is offering the "find" to anyone who will name it. Tom Heffner Wilkinson and Potato Patch Wilkinson are the two names now in the contest, but the judge wants someone to name the baby who will take care of it.

While the sheriff's department has been bemoaning the dearth of crime statistics, the county and the consequent lessening of fees for his officers, the county commissioners in checking up his account for the past three months are greatly pleased, as it only amounts to $408.62, less than has been the case in at least four years and less than half as much as it has been during the past year. The amount includes holding court and feeding prisoners.

The following Waco people are registered at local hotels: J. M. Shelton, Sam Ryan, Hugh L. Stewart, Pierce Kimbrough.

For every electric automobile made in 1915 there were 120 gasoline cars.

DAILY SHORT STORY.

THE CASE OF JANE LAWRENCE.

By ELLIS DICKSON.

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"I had known about Jane Lawrence I never would have become president of the board of managers of St. Prisca's home. But then how was I to know? And really, Tom, some of the very best people are on the board—the very Mrs. Vanderweiden is treasurer, though of course she leaves all the work to her secretary. But if I had known of the case of Jane Lawrence I really couldn't have done it. I have actually stayed awake nights over it. And this afternoon, when I ought to be spending all my time at the tailor's and dressmaker's, I have to have a board meeting here just to discuss the matter."

"Mrs. Stoddington, arrayed in the befrilled and beaded splendor of her favorite rose-colored gown, had been sitting, for fully ten minutes before she began her complaint, at the little spindle-legged desk in her study. With her well-manicured, jeweled fingers she had been handling a few papers relating to the affairs of St. Prisca's home, occasionally checking them off with her gold and pearl fountain pen.

Tom Blaine, younger by ten years, was sitting impatiently waiting at her side. Besides being the wealthy widow's only brother, he was her attorney.

"I have called the board meeting for four, and it is now a quarter to five. I want to see you first to get your advice. I was going to ask the new curate. He is really quite a saint, and so good looking. I thought of asking him first, but then it occurred to me that perhaps you knew more of human nature, and to deal with the case of Jane Lawrence I am afraid needs more knowledge of human nature than anything else."

Clearly Tom was impatient and not in the least interested. Quite perfunctorily he said: "And what may be Jane Lawrence's claims on your attention? I take it she is an inmate of this institution of yours."

"The trouble with Jane, Tom, is simply this. She is very pretty. Not just pretty, but dangerously, absurdly pretty, and a girl in an institution of that sort really has no right to be pretty. Of course, it isn't exactly her fault, but it makes it so troublesome. Something dreadful is quite sure to happen to her. All the husbands of the ladies on the board and the brothers and even that angelic new curate make quite a fuss over the girl. An artist even came to me and asked to be allowed to do her portrait."

"What ever are we going to do? She is only eighteen now and she has not left the home, but in a month she must begin to go out to earn her living. She has been taught fine needlework and that means that she must get a position in some dressmaking establishment. And she will be bound to be noticed."

"I don't see what advice I can give," said Tom, suppressing a yawn.

"Who else could help me better? For several years we have realized that Jane was different from the other children in the home. We have been afraid that she was going to be pretty, but our gravest fears have been exceeded. She is really a beauty. The matron has been so kind to keep the girl from realizing. When the other girls have had pretty hair ribbons Jane has had none, and she has been made to brush her hair as plainly as possible. When the other girls have gone on excursions Jane has been kept at home. In her little room the matron even took down the mirror so she would not be tempted to be vain. Still the girl seems to crave pleasure, still she seems to be at heart quite a coquette. Even when she is talking to us women you can't help but notice the archness in her smile. If we could only get her married to some honest, hardworking person who would give her a home with plenty of work she would be all right. But how shall she meet him without running the risk of finding out her charms? Really it is dreadful!"

If Tom felt any special interest in the case of the little orphan girl he did not show it; in fact, there was a distinct expression of boredom on his face as he passed back and forth between his sister.

"To begin with," he said in his most professional tone, after he had come to a pause, "you have gone about it in the worst possible way. It doesn't take a lawyer or a deep student of human nature to tell you that the best way to arouse a girl's interest in pretty things is to deprive her of them. And to curtail her good times will only lead her to greater cravings for pleasure. This unfortunate little person is a woman exactly like yourself at heart and no doubt has the same craving for gawgaws and furbelows as you have."

Tom paused for a moment and thought. "Here's my remedy," he resumed. "Call off this board meeting this afternoon. Why make a case for sodate spinsters and self-righteous curates to ponder over this little person? Then give the girl a real taste of happiness. If she is well behaved invite her to your own home, treat her as you would a guest, provide her with a few pretty clothes and take her about with you. Let her see the normal side of life. Let her realize that a woman can be pretty and attractive without being a sinner. Then when she starts out to earn her own living she will have the same point of view, and when the honest, worthy male comes along she will be the better off for having some idea of the world besides that gained through the gratings of St. Prisca's."

It was two weeks later, and Mrs. Stoddington was again seated before her spindle-legged desk, only this time she was clad in a flimsy morning negligee of violet instead of rose color. Tom again sat before her in apparent impatience. "The plan is a failure, just as I thought it would be," she began. "Why I ever thought you could advise me in the case of young orphan girls is quite beyond me. Oh, yes, she was very sweet and declared she was beautiful, and the young curate, who hadn't the most remote idea that she was the unfortunate Jane Lawrence, had got into her after noon, and two of three of the bachelors who never look at a debutante suddenly discovered a decided fondness for my drawing room chairs—I needn't tell you that for you are much the same boy yourself. There was nothing in the least bit forward about her though. She was as sweet as a girl of our own class—and then suddenly she went off yesterday. Heaven knows where she went. She was gone for an entire day and simply left word with my maid that she had gone down town. And at bedtime she came in and refused to tell me where she had been. She is up stairs in her room now, and I am going to have her packed up tomorrow and sent back to St. Prisca's. It is really too disgraceful. Gone a whole day and won't tell where she went. Tom, it is all your fault."

Tom drew his chair closer to that of his sister and this time showed evident interest in the case of the little orphan girl. "Suppose I could tell you where the weeks she was yesterday. Suppose I could prove to you that she left the house on an expedition to find the one thing in the sea felt indebted for her existence and happiness. world of normal, pleasant things. You told her. Well, could you very much blame her if you knew that her little expedition yesterday was a trip to the office of that benefactor to tell him of her gratitude and to thank him with the child that she felt for what she considers the turning point of her career? Without exactly knowing how, she has been a shipwreck. And then, of course, suppose you knew that that humble benefactor, quite in spite of himself, would have saved her, and then sent her home with a promise not to tell where she had been, would you blame her very much? I thought that I might explain it more easily than she could."

Mrs. Stoddington sank back heavily against the fragile framework of the desk chair. "Oh, Tom, I am so relieved," she said. "I felt such a responsibility."

Tom had risen, and if to go, but of course he had no such intention, for he had not yet seen the little girl in question that day. "You know, your idea was a good one, perhaps even a little naive," he told his sister. "You know you said you would feel your task complete when you had seen her married to some honest, hard-working person. I am quite sure that I am hard-working and, in spite of my profession, I make certain claims to honesty. It is a rather hasty decision, but I have gained Jane's consent. We are just waiting for your permission."

School Board Works on Selection Corps of Teachers

Teachers for the public schools for the next school term were considered by the board of trustees of the Waco public schools at a meeting held last night. The entire time of the meeting was spent in going over the present list of teachers and considering new ones. A list of the teachers for the next year which will practically be complete will probably be announced today.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

There are three additional men ready to be sent off by Recruiting Officer Wisener at the United States recruiting office at Fourth and Austin streets, upstairs. There is a steady recruiting at the office, new men coming in with regularity.

That the Baylor band was treated royally on the occasion of the trip of the Waco business men to Comanche and intermediate points on the occasion of the recent visit of the Y. M. C. A. trade trippers to the west, was the opinion expressed yesterday by Dr. rector Charles Parker. Mr. Parker said that he wanted to return thanks for the many courtesies extended by all the business men on the trip, and especially for the thoughtfulness of Messrs. W. H. Hoffmann and Frank Traub. He said that all the boys enjoyed the trip thoroughly.

Letters received from J. W. Higgins show that Waco's former mayor is now in Portland, Ore., though he has been spending much of his time in Baker, Ore. His health is much improved, a fact his friends will learn with much pleasure.

In order to aid in emphasizing the Mothers' day program at Riesel tomorrow, there will be two speakers, one from Waco representing the Y. M. C. A. These will be W. A. Laughlin and F. A. Winchell. These gentlemen are good speakers and will carry a strong message to those who may hear them at Riesel.

The car of J. M. Dawson which was stolen from the First Baptist church Sunday night has been located at Bryan.

Robert Rogers leaves on Saturday as a delegate from this section to the general assembly of Southern Presbyterian churches in Florida and will be absent about three weeks.

The trial of Jesse Washington, the negro accused of the murder of Mrs. George Fryar near Robinson, will begin next Monday, day after tomorrow, and every indication is that there will be no delay in the matter. The negro will be brought back here for trial.

AVIATOR FLIES OVER WASHINGTON AT NIGHT; "BOMBS" GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS

Trail of fire in air showing path followed by Aviator Thompson in flight over Washington, D. C.

To prove his contention that the United States capital is not properly defended, Aviator De Lloyd Thompson made a night "attack" on Washington and "bombed" the city. He descended upon the town under cover of darkness and dropped many bombs, which were in this case mere pyrotechnic displays. When above the War College, about 3,000 feet in the air, he set off the first bomb and immediately the government searchlights were out searching the heavens for him and finally located him, but for a few moments only.

NORTH WACO CENTER GROWING IN INTEREST

APPEALING PROGRAM OF MUSIC, FACETIOUS DEBATE AND AN ADDRESS, MARK MEETING.

Judge Denton Declares in Address That Being Too Busy Hurts Neighborliness.

Interest continues to grow in the North Waco school civic center and last night there were more than 100 men, women and children of this district gathered to hear the program of the regular semi-monthly meeting. Some time ago the center was organized for the purpose of promoting educational and social interests of the community and promoting projects that would benefit the community. Results of the organization have thus far been very gratifying and some splendid plans are ahead of the organization.

Practically only those who reside in this school district participate in the programs, which are always heard by a large audience. Committees that were appointed some time ago to plan work for the organization were to have reported last night, but asked for more time and will report at the next regular meeting of the center.

Last night the program consisted of several musical numbers and a very unique debate on "Should a Boy Have Two Pieces of Pie at One Sitting?" Representing the affirmative side of the "serious" question, John Shaw and Conner Poage were given the decision, the audience being the judges. Mrs. W. A. Pease and Dr. W. S. Ferguson represented the negative side of the question.

Judge George N. Denton gave an address which was well received by the audience, his subject being "The Busy Man." He pointed out that the man of today was often so overloaded with business affairs that he hardly knew his next-door neighbor. As an aid in lessening the burdens of business life he advocated furthering a sociable spirit in the neighborhood.

Rev. J. F. Gormley conducted the invocation and W. A. Poage presided at the meeting. Among the numbers on the program were the following:

Vocal solo, Miss Annie Caple, accompanied by Miss Bernice Shelton.

Piano solo, Miss Marion Hairston.

Violin solo, Clyde Blaylock.

Violin solo, Miss Hazel Lloyd Downs, accompanied by Mrs. S. E. Schaefer.

Instrumental solo, Miss Eva Robinson.

Candidates for the various offices will participate in a candidates' rally which will be given Tuesday night at the Lakeview school under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association.

Among the candidates that have already signified their intentions of appearing on the program are Tom L. McCullough, John D. Robinson, George N. Denton and E. C. Street, candidates for district judge; J. B. McNamara and Frank B. Tiley, candidates for county attorney; Edgar Witt, Nat. Harris, Frank West, J. P. Alexander, Joe G. Wren and others.

Following the addresses by the candidates, which will be given on the lawn at the school, an ice cream social will follow. The public in general is invited. All interurbans from Waco stop at Lakeview, and there is a splendid road for automobiles between Waco and Lakeview.

GREET PLAYERS BRING TO CLOSE SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

"Much Ado About Nothing" and Puzzling "Hamlet" Are Concluding Offerings.

The exceedingly delightful performances of the Ben Greet players, on Baylor campus, Thursday night and yesterday matinee and night, were attended by unusually large crowds and furnished the local people with three of the best performances of their kind ever seen in Waco.

The plays of yesterday afternoon and last night closed the tercentenary celebration at Baylor which had been extended over a period of three weeks, including plays by the Deyereux company, a play by the students, lectures by Dr. J. M. Manley, of Chicago, and by Dr. Armstrong, of Baylor, and the three plays presented by the Greet company.

The Ben Greet performers came to Waco with the highest recommendations as Shakespearean performers and have certainly maintained that reputation.

Yesterday afternoon they presented "Much Ado About Nothing." The play was given in the same artistic manner that characterized the production of "Romeo and Juliet," the preceding night. As in all of Shakespeare's plays the characters are taken from life and the portrayal of these most pleasing to the audience. Miss Elsie Herndon Kearns was at her best in the part of Beatrice, and as in all her appearances, held the closest attention of every one present.

Last night, the players gave "Hamlet," one of the strongest plays in all literature, and one of the most difficult to give. Their performance was strikingly superior to most of the presentations of this play. It is perhaps the most discussed of all plays in English literature, most of the discussion arising over the question as to whether Hamlet was crazy or not. The play within the play was one of the strongest points of the show; throughout the play, the interest is kept at the very highest pitch because the keenness of his master Shakespeare was at the point where he did his best work. The play last night was an example of the hold which the spoken drama still has on the public. It was in the hands of a company of artists who portrayed all the varying human passions in a manner that was nothing short of superb.

Many actors have failed in the attempt to portray the part of Hamlet, and many have even lost their minds in the training. Miss Elsie Herndon Kearns showed a great versatility in the part as played by her last night. The public as a whole is strongly skeptic as to the ability of any actor or actress to play this difficult role, but Miss Kearns showed her ability as "Hamlet" at every turn. The furious desire for revenge was interpreted in a manner that held the listeners in profound admiration for the misdeeds of the deceased king of Denmark.

Mr. Sommes also showed a versatile hand in the portrayal of two of the parts, that of Laertes and that of the Ghost of Hamlet's father. The ability of these actors and actresses to master the parts of many different plays, which parts are at varying angles of opposition to each other was strikingly brought out in the three plays given at Baylor. Mr. Sommes performed Romeo, in Thursday night's performance, then Benedict in the afternoon and last night took two parts either of which is a task within itself.

Such acting as this is found only among real artists.

The whole company of Ben Greet players is one that is well balanced, filled with people who have been a serious study of Shakespeare and people who have been eminently successful. The people of Waco have had the rare treat of seeing the best company of woodland players in the world in three of the most appealing plays of the greatest writer who has ever known.

M'LENNAN COUNTY IS WOEFULLY BEHIND IN PRODUCTION OF HOGS

Today was to have been Pig Day in Waco, but it probably will not be because McLennan is not a pig county. It was planned to distribute fifty pigs on the public square this morning in connection with the Chamber of Commerce pig club movement among the boys and girls of this county but shortly before midnight indications were that the pigs could not be secured because the batch contracted for were found to be lacking in the number to the standard of breeds that the commercial body has been distributing.

Seven prominent hog raisers of the county were gotten in touch with yesterday by Layton H. Little, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and neither could supply the type of pig desired in sufficient quantities. Only one hope remains and it will not be definitely known until this morning whether this possibility will mean that any pigs will be available. In case pigs are secured from this source they will be carried to the public square and given out as long as they last.

Yesterday's attempt to secure pigs in emergency when the original arrangements failed, is declared to illustrate the woeful lack of the county in the production of hogs. Since the pigs were bought by the Chamber of Commerce and very few are available at any price. It is declared that this county raises only $200,000 of hog products annually, while there was shipped into McLennan county $1,257,000 worth of hog products.

Fifty pigs were to have been distributed on the south side of the public square to the applicants who have filed their requests with Secretary E. F. Drake. Applications which have been received saying that the applicant would be here today in person to get his pig were to have been the first honored.

Applicants who have been properly accepted and who will not get pigs today will receive them later, as the pigs will be distributed each Saturday until the supply to be secured will have been exhausted.

Only One Man Bids on Carrying Alaskan Aerial Mail

Washington, May 12.—Opening of bids today at the postoffice department for aeroplane mail service on seven routes in Alaska, and one in Massachusetts developed one bidder. D. L. Dyer of Itardor, Alaska, offered to undertake service for a year between Seward and Itardor, a distance of 380 miles, for $45,500.

The department will consider its acceptance. The route now costs $22,865.

Department officials attribute the lack of bids to the fact that American aeroplane manufacturers are busy on contracts for the European nations and most of them have sold their products far in advance.

The department has learned, it was said today, that some manufacturers will consider the aerial mail routes later.

Woman Suicides So Children Can Get Insurance

By the Associated Press.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 12.—Mrs. M. J. Skoll committed suicide Tuesday by hanging in order that her six children might receive $1,000 life insurance, according to a signed statement made today by her husband, who is being held pending an investigation.

Skoll, who a few years ago lost a fortune as a result of business reverses, declared he had planned to commit suicide so that his wife and children, who were in need, might benefit by his insurance. But Mrs. Skoll, after discovering his insurance had lapsed and that her own still was effective, decided it was her duty to commit suicide, he said.

Negro Boy Repays Kindness by Attack on Little White Girl

After having been given a home and clothed in good clothes and his rags burned, a negro boy, aged about 13, attempted to criminally assault a little 9-year-old white girl at the home of his benefactor yesterday afternoon. The boy had been taken some days ago from the city jail and given a pleasant environment.

Quick justice was meted out to the negro youngster and within a few hours he was scheduled for the state reformatory.

The case was handled by Chief Guy McNamara and Sergeant George Jackson. Three checks were found on the man, who has so many aliases that his real name is doubtful, each marked from $5 to $50. Two are on Shreveport banks and one is on a Waxahachie bank. He attempted to have one of the checks accepted by a local hardware company just before closing hour yesterday and was intercepted.

Negro Boy Repays
Kindness by Attack on Little White Girl

After having been given a home and clothed in good clothes and his rags burned, a negro boy, aged about 12, attempted to criminally assault a little 9-year-old white girl at the home of his benefactor yesterday afternoon. The boy had been taken some day ago from the city jail and given a pleasant environment.

Quick justice was meted out to the negro youngster and within a few hours he was scheduled for the state reformatory.

$32,000 HAS BEEN SUBSCRIBED FOR THE BAPTIST SANITARIUM

Reporting that there had been raised up to the present time for the proposed Baptist sanitarium the sum of $32,000, this amount being the sum of good pledges, Rev. P. S. Groner, who is in charge of the movement to raise the fund for the erection of the hospital by the Baptists of this section met with the Baptist sanitarium committee in his offices in the Amicable building yesterday afternoon.

The committee is composed of Rev. P. S. Groner, chairman, John F. Rowe, Rev. J. M. Dawson, Rev. J. B. Tidwell and D. P. Wallace. The committee thought that this was a fine showing under all the circumstances, and especially in view of the fact that no campaign has yet been put on, the work having been done by personal solicitation by Chairman P. S. Groner. He has been active every day and all the time, and is securing results.

This was the monthly report on the financial phases, and the other business was routine. A campaign in the way of enlisting the commercial organizations may be put on before a great while now, but up to the present the work has been done as indicated.

Civil Service Exams Will Be Held May 17

Preparations for the civil service examinations for positions in various branches of the federal government which will be held Wednesday, May 17, have been started by F. J. Suits, secretary of the local civil service board. Mr. Suits will supply application blanks to all persons intending to take the examinations.

Positions and salaries paid are as follows:
Assistant to expert in commerce and finance, $1,400 to $1,800; assistant in water requirement investigations, male, $1,080 to $1,380; junior structural engineer, male, two grades, $1,200 to $1,650 and $2,200 to $1,650; assistant in dry land agriculture, male, $900 to $1,500; assistant in poisonous plant investigations, male, $1,200 to $1,600; expert in commerce and finance, $1,800 to $2,500.Improvement Notes*THEATRES ARE BEING REPAIRED.

The remodeling of the Rex theatre is proceeding with a big force of men at work. The changes will be noteworthy, and the improvement is one which will transform this building.

Plans are under way for remodeling and repairing the building in which the Alamo theatre was located when the structure was fire-swept last week. It is not known just yet exactly what will be done, but it is known that there will be some decided changes in the building, and that a considerable outlay of money will be necessary for what is being planned. This building is on Austin street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, south side of the street.

The store building which was occupied by Will Bolger as a grocery store on North Eighth street, between Austin and Franklin streets, is being rebuilt, as it was damaged by fire a short time ago.

The W. J. Neale building on South Fifth street, between Franklin and Mary streets, is showing up splendidly, the trimming of the building making it present a handsome and attractive appearance. It is a two-story structure.

A building permit has been issued by Building Inspector S. P. Herbert to Maybell P. Moore to construct a fire room cottage at 1515 West avenue, the cost to be $2,900. This will be a slightly and modern residence.

The squeegee pavement on Franklin street, from Fifth street to a point between Sixth and Seventh streets, is being treated to a new coat of fine gravel, and the same is true of some of the side streets radiating from Franklin.

With the advent of the real warm weather the bitumen in the pavement softens, rises to the surface, and if it is in an amount sufficient it makes itself felt in a decided manner by the feet of pedestrians, but every effort is being made to get the squeegee coating to the right consistency, and this can be done by a few applications of the fine gravel, and this is not expensive.

In a very short time the street will be firm and smooth, with just enough elasticity to be easy on the feet of the horses.

Assurances have been given certain authorities in Waco by the cooler heads at Robinson that the negro, Jesse Washington, accused of the murder of Mrs. George Fryar near Robinson, may be brought to Waco for trial with safety, and sentiment in Waco seems to be that the negro should be brought here and tried and legally executed if found guilty.

The parties from Robinson who gave the assurances said that the negro should not be brought here before Monday, in their judgment, but that when the time came for his trial he could be brought without fear of injury at the hands of the people of that place, who were convinced that there would be no delay; all they asked was that there be no unnecessary delay whatever in the legal machinery.

In this connection, it is recalled that there has been a complete change in the manner of handling cases of this kind, by common consent in Texas, and after parties charged with criminal assault get a fair hearing in the trial court and are found guilty, there being no reasonable doubt of guilt, then attorneys withhold further effort, no technical points are raised or delays occasioned, and executions take place quickly. This has had the effect of stopping many of the lawless demonstrations which formerly characterized the commission of the diabolical crime of which Washington stands accused and to which he has confessed.

There was a good deal of uneasiness manifest in Waco yesterday regarding the possibility of some trouble in case the negro is brought here for trial, and many openly expressed the view that it might be wise under all the circumstances to have a change of venue and try the case elsewhere; others thought that if the trial proceeds with the rapidity that is expected, that there will be no demonstration. There was a general depreciation of any possible or possible demonstration, but the feeling of uneasiness was found and after parties charged with criminal assault get a fair hearing in the trial court and are found guilty, there being no reasonable doubt of guilt, then attorneys withhold further effort, no technical points are raised or delays occasioned, and executions take place quickly. This has had the effect of stopping many of the lawless demonstrations which formerly characterized the commission of the diabolical crime of which Washington stands accused and to which he has confessed.

This has had the effect of stopping many of the lawless demonstrations which formerly characterized the commission of the diabolical crime of which Washington stands accused and to which he has confessed.

There was a good deal of uneasiness manifest in Waco yesterday regarding the possibility of some trouble in case the negro is brought here for trial, and many openly expressed the view that it might be wise under all the circumstances to have a change of venue and try the case elsewhere; others thought that if the trial proceeds with the rapidity that is expected, that there will be no demonstration. There was a general depreciation of any possible or possible demonstration, but the feeling of uneasiness was found and after parties charged with criminal assault get a fair hearing in the trial court and are found guilty, there being no reasonable doubt of guilt, then attorneys withhold further effort, no technical points are raised or delays occasioned, and executions take place quickly. This has had the effect of stopping many of the lawless demonstrations which formerly characterized the commission of the diabolical crime of which Washington stands accused and to which he has confessed.

$32,000 HAS BEEN SUBSCRIBED FOR THE BAPTIST SANITARIUM

Reporting that there had been raised up to the present time for the proposed Baptist sanitarium the sum of $32,000, this amount being in the form of good pledges, Rev. J. H. Groner, who is in charge of the movement to raise the fund for the erection of the hospital by the Baptists of this section, met with the Baptist sanitarium committee in his office in the Amicable building yesterday afternoon.

The committee is composed of Rev. P. S. Groner as chairman, John E. Root, J. H. Dawson, Rev. J. B. Tidwell and D. P. Wallace. The committee thought that this was a fine showing under all the circumstances, and especially in view of the fact that no campaign has yet been put on the work having been done by personal solicitation by Chairman P. S. Groner. He has been active every day and all the time, and is securing results.

This was the monthly report on the financial phases, and the other business was routine. A campaign in the way of enlisting the commercial organizations may be put on before a great while now, but up to the present the work has been done as indicated.

Civil Service Exams Will Be Held May 17

Preparations for the civil service examinations for positions in various branches of the federal government which will be held Wednesday, May 17, have been started by P. J. Suits, secretary of the local civil service board. Mr. Suits will supply application blanks to all persons intending to take the examinations.

Positions and salaries paid are as follows: Assistant to expert in commerce and finance, $1,400 to $1,800; assistant in water requirement investigations, male, $1,080 to $1,380; junior structural engineer, male, two grades, $1,200 to $1,400 and $1,200 to $1,380; assistant in dry land agriculture, male, $900 to $1,100; assistant in poisonous plant investigations, male, $1,200 to $1,500; expert in commerce and finance, $1,800 to $2,500.

Improvement Notes*THEATRES ARE BEING REPAIRED.

The remodeling of the Rex theatre is proceeding with a big force of men at work. The changes will be noteworthy, and the improvement is one which will transform this building.

Plans are under way for remodeling and repairing the building in which the Alamo theatre was located when the structure was fire-ravaged last week. It is not known just yet exactly what will be done, but it is known that there will be some decided changes in the building, and that a considerable outlay of money will be necessary to do what is being planned. This building is on Austin street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, south side of the street.

The store building which was occupied by Will Bolger as a grocery store on North Eighth street, between Austin and Franklin streets, is being rebuilt, as it was damaged by fire a short time ago.

The W. J. Neale building on South Fifth street, between Franklin and Mary streets, is showing up splendidly. The trimming of the building making it present a handsome and attractive appearance. It is a two-story structure.

A building permit has been issued by Building Inspector S. P. Herbert to Maybell P. Moore to construct a five-room cottage at 1515 West avenue, the cost to be $2,900. This will be a slightly and modern residence.

The square pavement on Franklin street, from Fifth street to a point between Sixth and Seventh streets, is being treated to a new coat of fine gravel and the same is true of some of the side streets radiating from Franklin.

With the advent of the real warm weather the bitumen in the pavement begins to rise to the surface, and if it is in an amount sufficient it makes itself felt in a decided manner by adhering to the wheels of vehicles or the feet of pedestrians, but every effort is being made to get the seepage coating to the right consistency, and this can be done by a few applications of the fine gravel, and this is not expensive. In a very short time the street will be firm and smooth, with just enough elasticity to be easy on the feet of the horses.

Robinson Gives Assurance Will Not Molest Murderer

Assurances have been given certain authorities in Waco by the cooler heads at Robinson that the negro, Jesse Washington, accused of the murder of Mrs. George Fryar near Robinson, may be brought to Waco for trial with safety, and sentiment in Waco seems to be that the negro should be brought here and tried and legally executed if found guilty.

The parties from Robinson who gave the assurance said that the negro should not be brought here before Monday, in their judgment, but that when the time came for his trial he could be brought without fear of injury at the hands of the people of that place, who were convinced that there would be no delay; all they asked was that there be no unnecessary delay whatever in the legal machinery.

In this connection, it is recalled that there has been a complete change in the manner of handling cases of this kind, by common consent in Texas, and after parties charged with criminal assault get a fair hearing in the trial court and are found guilty, there being no reasonable doubt of guilt, then attorneys withhold further effort, no technical points are raised or delays occasioned, and executions take place quickly. This has had the effect of stopping many of the lawless demonstrations which formerly characterized the commission of the diabolical crime of which Washington stands accused and to which he has confessed. There was a good deal of uneasiness manifest in Waco yesterday regarding the possibilities of some trouble in case the negro is brought here for trial, and many openly expressed the view that it might be wise under all the circumstances to have a change of venue and try the case elsewhere; others thought that if the trial proceeds with the rapidity that is expected, that there will be no demonstration. There was a general deprecation of any proposed or possible demonstration, but the feeling of uneasiness was found pretty general.

Intimate Sidelights Given by the Waco Soldier Boy

Giving a bubbling pen picture of camp life of Fort Sam Houston, where companies K and G are stationed, Roy C. Tarter has written an intimate letter to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tarter, 825 Jefferson street, the publication of which will be a surprise to him. The letter follows:

"Dear Folks: Believe me, we are all around here. We were the first over on the field. The post is the San Antonio bunch out. We pulled in here at 6 o'clock this morning. That ride down here was the limit. When the train stopped we piled off and hiked right out to the post. The post is the 'biggest and best' thing yet; the finest buildings for the men and horses to stay in and veritable mansions for the officers. As I said, we were the first ones on the ground, but there are about fifteen or more companies in by now.

"I didn't sleep a minute till after we left Austin this morning at about 2:45.

BOYS ARE SATISFIED WITH CAMP CONDITIONS.

"We got everything in fairly good shape by 2 o'clock this afternoon and then we were fed, not a thing before 2 o'clock but a ham sandwich, which we were handed when we first got to the grounds, but everybody is very well satisfied. We were turned loose at 3 o'clock after we had been fed and told not to show up until 7 o'clock this evening. I am at hotel now.

"The first thing we did when we got down town was to visit the Alamo and I bought a couple of souvenirs. Yes, I bought them in the old Alamo within ten feet of the spot where Crockett and Bowie died, carving greasers and history.

"After our visit to the Alamo we discussed whether we would have time to take a bath and write letters, too, and we decided to write and then if we had time to take a bath.

WATER SUPPLY MEN FORM ORGANIZATION TO CO-OPERATE MORE

The meeting this week of the Southwestern Waterworks association held in this city saw the culmination of a sentiment for an organization of the supply men interested in the conventions and they have formed a distinct organization which will be affiliated with the waterworks men, said Charles H. Ade of New York and San Antonio yesterday afternoon. The purpose of the organization will be to conserve the interests of the supply men by putting their annual exhibits on a better basis and to co-operate more directly with the big convention. The new organization will be called the Supply Men's Association of the Southwestern Waterworks association.

Besides President Ade of the National Meter Supply company, other officials are Mr. Ryerson, president of the Dallas Foundry company, with Messrs. Collins of Chicago, Cetti of Brooklyn, Start of Chicago and Ade of New York, as directors.

Practically all of the men selected to head the new organization will be present for the national waterworks convention which will be held in New York soon. Following the national meeting the supply men will call a meeting in Texas, possibly in Waco, in the latter part of June to consider more fully the complete organization of the new association, writing a constitution and outlining more fully their scope of work.

Essay Honors Will Be Announced by Next Monday

Results of the prize essay contest in the grammar schools which closed yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock will probably not be known until Monday, according to Mrs. W. G. John F. Vance.
Rev. W. P. Witsell, pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiated at the funeral service of John F. Vance yesterday afternoon. The services were held from the residence, 2246 Columbus street, interment at Oakwood. Pallbearers were: Oscar Brazelton, R. F. Clayton and A. E. Brown, representing the journeymen plumbers, and S. J. Flood, N. S. Hill and E. C. Womack, representing the master plumbers of Waco.

ALAMO CITY HAS PLENTY OF PRETTY GIRLS.

"I sure wish Bush was with us, because I know how he would enjoy going without a meal or two. But say, young fellows, you have got to hand it to San Antonio for good looking girls. A couple of said girls came strolling out to the field this morning and one of them approached me and wanted to know where the captain was. The captain was. I told her there were about fifteen or twenty captains there and asked if she wanted to see all of them or one in particular. She said she didn't care to see all of them or any one in particular either, as she only wanted to look around and wanted permission. I told them I would see them through all right and so Jack and I paraded around with them for about half an hour, when I saw the captain coming in our direction and we told them we would have to get back to headquarters and see that everything was going right. The boys threatened to kill us when we got back, but we argued them out of it. Otherwise, we are going to be mighty good. ROY."

WACO SANTONE

LEFTY HILL STAGES COME-BACK AND HOLDS BRONCS TO THREE HITS.

BROWNING EASY FOR WACO

Most All of the Skippers' Runs Sent in by Hefty Two-base Clouts.

Lefty Hill, who was sent to the shower by the Bronchos in the second inning of the Wednesday game, was sent back at 'em yesterday and mopped up. He held the gang to three hits, two of which were scratches, and although a bit wild towards the end of the game, managed to pull through without getting into serious trouble.

Waco won easily 6 to 1. Frank Browning, who was selected by Cap Leidy to try to take the odd game of the series, presented nothing that puzzled the locals. Browning, who graduated from the Waco club, is a favorite here. But he wasn't favored any yesterday by the Naves. They just hammered him whenever they needed a run. Of their ten hits, five were long doubles with men waiting to score. In fact, each of the six runs with the exception of one was driven in by a two-bagger.

One of the spectacular features was a fine catch by Jesse James in the second inning that probably had more or less effect on the outcome. After two out, he went out to left field, and when a ball was hit to the right field fence, James, however, backed up against the boards, struck his glove-hand up as high as he could and grabbed the ball off the palms with his thumb and first finger.

Waco started sewing up the game in a merciful manner right in the first inning. Red Kuhn, who was lead-off man in the absence of Tanner, drew a walk. This expressible by the way, is a somewhat hackneyed one. Anyway, Red drew another walk. Coyle flew out to center. Then Red pulled on his famous imitation of a rabbit running from a coon. Red is known as a habit of scoring from first base on two-baggers. Half a dozen times since then he has been home the little 'un has been called on to make the long home hope, and he never has been caught yet. It was Coyle who doubled, and Red scored standing up.

Malmquist opened the second inning with a double and took third on a long sacrifice fly. With two out Hill singled cleanly over second for the run. In the third Coyle got on through a boot by Hansen and was sacrificed by Conwell. James went out to second, but Grubb doubled high up on the Sanger sign and Coyle scored.

The Naves went out in order in the fourth and fifth, but in the sixth, after James had gone out, Grubb and Malmquist singled in succession to left. Then the Kaiser got one of his old-time long drives over the center-fielder's head and scored both men.

Kuhn opened the seventh with a hit, but a fast double by Balenti cut off a chance to score. Conwell scratched a single at third but James had hard luck when Browning knocked down his hard drive through the hole in the fence.

The sixth run came in the eighth after Grubb had been caught out on a pop-up by Coyle. The Broncho catcher made a fine catch over the visitors' dugout, jumping the bat pile and kicking a few players out of the way to get to the ball. Malmquist, after scratching a single, drew a walk and went to second on Wohlenbein's infield out. Relly then doubled down the first base line, and ball striking the inside of the chalk, and Malmquist came home with his third run.

The score:

Sporting Comment

Andreen seems to be a hitting catcher. Wonder if Bittle is worried over his job.

The same old thing today—it's up to Waco to pull the Gassers out of the top berth. They never have failed yet.

Red and his whistle seem to be perfectly at home in the sun garden. Stick wid 'em, Red—we're wid yuh.

Tanner's injury was more serious than was thought at first. It is now said he may be out of the game for at least a week.

Funny how the Naves manage to hang up to the top in the face of the hard luck they have had in the matter of cringles. Class will tell.

Cleveland managed to break even with the Red Sox, each team winning two games. Speaker went fine during the series, as might be expected.

Coyle wasn't hardly able to work, but the injury to Tanner made it necessary for him to step into the breach. He walked into a busy day.

Any day Jesse James doesn't pull a circus catch the records aren't straight. He got a good bumping yesterday when he backed against the fence, but he held on to the ball.

Al Walters did fairly well again yesterday. Not a base was stolen on his he is credited with ten put-outs and an assist and he slammed out two singles in three times at bat.

Hill never gets into trouble until he gets to working too fast. He is of a nervous disposition on the mound and wants to pitch just the minute he gets his signal. Relly tries to stall, but it's no use. The stalling has to be done before the sign is flashed.

The Panthers let Harbin go, Houston signed him and he pulled his former team mates out of first position yesterday, holding them to two hits while the Buffs bunched the four they got off Harrah. Stow got both of Fort Worth's hits.

Erickson butted into the game again yesterday for Detroit. The Tigers had an exciting evening. After making four runs in the seventh, they had a score tossed into 'em when Philadelphia also staged a rally that fell two short, however.

Oilers Fight Hard, but Gassers Win

By the Associated Press.
Shreveport, May 12.—Beaumont tied the score today in the seventh when Andreen hit over the fence, but a pass to Bernson in the Gassers' half, followed by Diamond's triple, gave to Shreveport the winning run in the last game of the series. The score:

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York.

New York, May 12.—An early advance attracted renewed realizing in the cotton market today and after selling at 13.08 July contracts eased off to 12.50 with the general list closing steady at a net decline of 5 to 11 points.

There were some overnight selling orders around the ring at the start and the opening was barely steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points, with active months selling about 2 to 5 points net lower.

The buying was by no means as active or aggressive as it was earlier in the week, while there was an evident disposition to secure profits for over the week-end and as prices worked lower reactionary sentiment became more aggressive. Prices reached the lowest point of the day in the day's trading.

There were continued drouth complaints from the eastern belt section and the southern part of Texas, with the forecast for continued clear weather.

Official Liverpool figures made the stock of cotton at Liverpool and afloat for Great Britain 725,000 bales at the end of this week, compared with 1,572,000 last year.

Weekly Review.

New York, May 12.—The cotton market has been extremely active during the past week with prices making new high records for the movement on general and more or less excited buying. Growing confidence in peace before another season is ended and a belief that there will be a big rush to replenish exhausted supplies abroad seemed to be largely responsible for the spread of bullish sentiment.

The advance carried prices up to 13.13 for July during Wednesday's trading. This reflected an advance of 8.75 per bale from the low level reached last February.

Trade interests have been among the leading buyers and a belief was expressed that much of this demand has been for the purpose of hedging the forward business of mills and exporters.

New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 12.—The cotton market had a barely steady undertone today and holders of long contracts were inclined to lighten their load, especially in the afternoon after the spot market was quoted and only small sales reported.

Favorable weather reports from the best part of the belt also worked against fresh buying and a resumption of the upward movement. In the morning session the market was somewhat irregular and unsettled, but with no very decided tendency in the afternoon the tendency was to work lower.

In the early trading prices lost 2 to 5 points but quickly recovered. The tone softened in the afternoon and at the lowest the trading months were 7 to 11 points under yesterday's last quotations, the close was 5 to 11 under.

WHEAT

Chicago, May 12.—Rains in the south-west finally carried down wheat values today notwithstanding that for a while the market showed a material advance.

The close was heavy 3/4¢ net lower, with July at 11.16¢, and September at 11.16¢. Corn wound up unchanged to a shade higher, oats off 3/4¢, 3/4¢ and provisions ranging from 2 1/2¢ decline to a rise of 20 cents.

At first the amount of moisture received by the drouth sections appeared to be far from sufficient to be of much importance. The effect, therefore, on wheat traders was brief, and initial price declines soon gave way to steadily increasing upticks.

It was not until the last half hour of the session that wheat traders turned decisively to the bear side. Renewal of rain in Kansas and Nebraska caused many early buyers of wheat and led to not a little speculative selling.

Seaboard demand put firmness into corn.

Oats eased off on account of improved crop reports.

Higher prices on hogs lifted provisions.

Values ranged as follows:

Cotton Is Moving Fast Just Now

Mention was made in these columns yesterday of the fact that the shipments of cotton out of Waco were more marked than they have been in some time, and yesterday afternoon there was still further verification of the fact that cotton is moving here in the presence in Waco of freight representatives of a number of the railroad lines in this state, all bent on getting a slice of the cotton shipment which has sprung up with renewed activity of late, due to the fact that cotton has tried hard to climb up to the thirteen cent mark and has almost succeeded.

Preparedness Survey of Waco for Government to Be Taken Beginning Today

Acting as a part of the vast, though well systematized and thoroughly organized, machinery of the national consulting board of the United States, and following a meeting yesterday afternoon of the committee which has been appointed to handle the Waco district in this stupendous scheme for correlating the industries of the country which might be of service in time of war, a start was today made by the Waco district committee to get the information desired and give it to the general board of which Thomas A. Edison is the head.

The Waco district industrial preparedness committee which is to make an industrial survey is composed of the following engineers and persons of technical ability in the line necessary to secure the data for the government: Acting Chairman, County Engineer R. J. Windrow, chairman; W. T. Goch, secretary; Robert J. Potts, W. C. Davidson, Mark Hanna, T. J. Palm and W. H. Prentiss, Jr. These gentlemen had been appointed a committee to handle the Waco district in the great scheme to secure information, and they are charged with getting exhaustive information upon every plant in the Waco district which could be of service in time of war or which might be called upon at such a time.

TWENTY POSSIBLE WAR INDUSTRIES IN CITY.

The committee found yesterday afternoon, after going into the matter thoroughly, that there are perhaps two-score or more plants in the territory embraced in the Waco district which should be visited and the data secured, hence their decision to start out on the work at once and to make a thorough and complete examination of these plants, securing information which will be absolutely private and confidential and which will be known to none outside of the board at Washington, which has asked for the information purely as a preparedness measure, and to know where to turn in an hour of national peril of war-clouded horizon.

The committee named above intends to visit every plant in the Waco district and make an exhaustive examination, and it is hoped that there will be full co-operation on the part of the owners of the plants. The committee will want details such as the minimum and maximum output; the facilities for handling orders under such conditions; the class and kind of machinery used; the organization of the company owning the plant, and many other things of that character, but as stated this will be strictly confidential and will be known to no one save the naval consulting board or the national preparedness authorities.

NATION HIGHLY SYSTEMATIZED FOR SURVEY.

The meeting of the Waco district committee came as the result of a letter from Fred A. Jones, Dallas, vice chairman and secretary of the Texas committee. Under the plan which has been worked out by the general committee at Washington each state is divided into districts, and a committee is charged with the duty of providing the information sought in that district, the ramifications thus covering every foot of territory in the Union, and providing a committee to handle the work in each area. The Waco district is composed of a territory which embraces the towns of Hillsboro, Itasca, Milford, Valley Mills, McGregor, Travis, Thornton, Groesbeck, Chillicothe, Mart, Mexia, West, Moody and all other towns within this area.

There are five districts in the state, and the Waco district includes a heavily populated portion of the whole area. The work which is to be done is purely patriotic, as it might be termed, as no appropriation whatever has been provided, and the great central board is serving without one cent of pay. The Waco district committee on the preparedness program, for instance, will visit the places in the district where there are plants to be examined, will pay their own traveling expenses, including railroad fare and hotel bills, will make the inspections of plants, prepare the report and do all that is necessary, at the expense of the individual members of the Waco district committee, of which R. J. Windrow is the chairman. It is an honor, however, to receive a recognition of this character, and really an historic honor, too, for such a movement has never before been attempted in this country.

WILL INDICATE PREPAREDNESS STRENGTH.

The plan which has been worked out by the general or central board is a comprehensive and systematic one, and ought to result in giving the nation a birdseye view, as it were, of its status as to preparedness, and this information ought to be of incalculable value in case of war," said Chairman R. J. Windrow yesterday afternoon. He was earnest and enthusiastic over the matter, and ready to enter at once upon the work, and it was easy to see that the right man had been chosen for chairman, and it might further be stated that each member of the committee is ready to do full duty and to do all that is necessary in the premises. It is believed that this same fine spirit will be found all over the country, and it is specially gratifying to know, from the letter of Vice Chairman Fred A. Jones, that Texas is responding nobly in this movement.

SURVEY WILL BE STARTED TODAY.

As indicative of the spirit animating the Waco part of the machinery, it was decided to start today on the matter and to continue the work as rapidly as possible until it shall have been concluded and full information provided and sent in on the confidential blanks which tell the story so completely. With blanks of this character from every portion of the United States, giving full and complete data on the plants and institutions which could be called upon in some manner for an output and a co-operation in time of war, it is easy to see what the great plan means, for the information will be classified, briefed and put where it can be reached at a moment's notice. The Waco district committee is counted on for prompt service on the part of its efficient and active committee, which is already to move out in the work today.

Miss Lottie Stearnes of Wisconsin, nationally known as an able platform orator, will be in Waco and will speak tonight on woman suffrage at 8:30 o'clock on the Baylor campus. The same platform that was used when the Ben Greet Shakespearean company played here will be used for Miss Stearnes' lecture.

This is the second time she has toured Texas giving lectures. Last year her subject was "The Woman in the Home." She is well known as an impressive, convincing and interesting talker and her lectures delivered this year in Texas have been widely commented upon.

Everybody is invited to attend the lecture which is held under the auspices of the Waco Equal Suffrage club. While in the city Miss Stearnes will be the guest of Mrs. N. K. Smith.

T. E. Hubby Will Visit Waco Boys at Fort Sam Houston

T. E. Hubby is in San Antonio today and expects to spend at least a portion of the morning there. It is his intention to visit the Waco soldier boys on Sunday and exchange fraternal greetings with them. Mr. Hubby was proud of the quick response made by the members of the Texas National Guard here, and thinks that this is simply another illustration of Waco's preparedness along all lines.

Speaking of the Carranza soldiers, Mr. Hubby said that many of them were more boys than men, and the ranks are marked by a large number of these, the older and more seasoned men being officers in most cases. He thinks that in case of a clash between Mexico and the United States there would only be two or three engagements of any note, as in his opinion the United States is now prepared for eventualities, though wishing to avoid some. He inclines to the view that had this country undertaken to go into Mexico sooner it would not have worked out well, as there had not been sufficient preparation; now it is different.

Mr. Hubby says the call for the militia of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona brought about many unexpected situations, and that he was in Brenham when the call was issued, the people there having arranged for a big Mayfest, depending for a band on the regimental music makers. When the regimental bands were called out this put a crimp into the people of Brenham on their big Mayfest, and they had to hustle hard and fast to get a band to take the place of the one on which they had been depending.

No Meeting of the City Commission This Week

There will not be any meeting of the city commission until next Thursday morning at the usual hour, 9:30 o'clock, according to announcement made yesterday by Mayor John Dollins.

It had been intended to meet at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but when the commissioners returned from New Braunfels, where they went to attend the firemen's meeting, it was decided to wait until Thursday for the assembling of the city date.

The Dan Ford matter, chicken ordinance, slaughter house ordinance and other propositions are likely to come before the body at its meeting on Thursday next.

Cotton has in fact been moving all over this district, and at points above Waco there has been much activity, causing some of the lines above here to use Gulf connections of lines in Waco. The following freight men were here yesterday: N. S. Davis, commercial agent of the Fort Worth, Denver, Fort Worth; Charles Sorg, Jr., commercial agent of the Fort Worth and Denver, Dallas; W. R. Daniels, traveling freight agent of the Texas and Pacific, Dallas; W. R. Pillsbury, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Dallas.

Incidentally it might be mentioned that the price has advanced since the car was bought, and $1.20 per bushel is the price in DeLeon where the car was bought, the freight to be added to this amount.

The car of peanuts sent to Waco, however, for Cashier Woodson, may still be had in the small lots by farmers at $1.10 a bushel. The saving to farmers on the peanuts has been considerable, as to buy them at the price asked in other places and have them shipped in small lots to Waco would bring the price far above the $1.10 asked for them here, this representing actual cost and carriage.

Farmers all over this county have bought the peanuts, some of the calls coming even from points outside of this county, and much interest has developed in the proposition. It is evident that the trial which is to be made here is an earnest one, and one which ought to bring good results.

It is still plenty of time to plant them and it is expected that the car which was bought will be used up easily before the demand ceases, especially as the $1.10 per bushel is now a low price for them.

Among those who have decided definitely to go are General Felix H. Robertson, who has been mentioned prominently for commander-in-chief of the veterans; Assistant Adjutant General Bradford Hancock of the Texas division, U. C. V.; Lieutenant Colonel D. W. Tarrant of the Texas division; J. T. Rogers, S. E. Carothers, T. B. Cox and possibly others.

The veterans will start their sessions on May 16 in Birmingham, and everybody will hope that they may have the time of their lives.

Preparedness Survey of Waco for Government to Be Taken Beginning Today

Acting as a part of the vast, though well systematized and thoroughly organized, machinery of the "committee on industrial preparedness of the naval consulting board of the United States" and following a meeting yesterday afternoon of the committee which has been appointed to handle the Waco district in this stupendous scheme for correlating the industries of the country which might be of service in time of war, a start was today made by the Waco district committee to get the information desired and give it to the general board of which Thomas A. Edison is the head.

The Waco district industrial preparedness committee which is to make an industrial survey is composed of the following engineers and persons of technical ability in the line necessary to secure the data for the government:

authorities: County Engineer R. J. Windrow, chairman; W. T. Gooch, secretary; Robert J. Potts, W. C. Davidson, Mark Hanna, T. J. Palm and W. H. Prentiss, Jr. These gentlemen had appointed a committee to handle the Waco district in the great scheme to secure information, and they are charged with getting exhaustive information upon every plant in the Waco district which could be of service in time of war or which might be called upon at such a time.

TWENTY POSSIBLE WAR INDUSTRIES IN CITY.

The committee found yesterday afternoon, after going into the matter thoroughly, that there are perhaps two-score or more plants in the territory embraced in the Waco district which should be visited and the data secured, hence their decision to start out on the work at once and to make a thorough and complete examination of these plants, securing information which will be absolutely private and confidential and which will be known to none outside of the board at Washington, which has asked for the information purely as a preparedness measure, and to know where to turn in an hour of national peril of war-clouded horizon.

The committee named above intends to visit every plant in the Waco district and make an exhaustive examination, and it is hoped that there will be full co-operation on the part of the owners of the plants. The committee will want details such as the minimum and maximum output; the facilities for handling orders under such conditions; the class and kind of machinery used; the organization of the company owning the plant; and many other things of that character, but as stated this will be strictly confidential and will be known to no one save the naval consulting board or the national preparedness authorities.

NATION HIGHLY SYSTEMATIZED FOR SURVEY.

The meeting of the Waco district committee came as the result of a letter from Fred A. Jones, Dallas, vice chairman and secretary of the Texas committee. Under the plan which has been worked out by the general committee at Washington each state is divided into districts, and a committee is charged with the duty of providing the information sought in that district, the ramifications thus covering every foot of territory in the Union, and providing a committee to handle the work in each area. The Waco district is composed of a territory which embraces the towns of Hillsboro, Inasa, Milford, Valley Mills, McGregor, Travis, Thornton, Groesbeck, Chilton, Mart, Mexia, West, Moody and all other towns within this area.

There are five districts in the state, and the Waco district includes a heavily populated portion of the whole area. The work which is to be done is purely patriotic, as it might be termed, as no appropriation whatever has been provided, and the great central board is serving without one cent of pay. The Waco district committee on the preparedness program, for instance, will visit the places in the district where there are plants to be examined, will pay their own traveling expenses, including railroad fare and hotel bills, will make the inspections of plants, prepare the report and do all that is necessary, at the expense of the individual members of the Waco district committee, of which R. J. Windrow is the chairman. It is an honor, however, to receive a recognition of this character, and really an historic honor, too, for such a movement has never before been attempted in this country.

WILL INDICATE PREPAREDNESS STRENGTH.

"The plan which has been worked out by the general or central board is a comprehensive and systematic one, and ought to result in giving the nation a birdseye view as to where its status as to preparedness, and this information ought to be of incalculable value in case of war," said Chairman R. J. Windrow yesterday afternoon. He was earnest and enthusiastic over the matter, and ready to enter at once upon the work, and it was easy to see that the right man had been chosen for chairman, and it might further be stated that each member of the committee is ready to do full duty and to do all that is necessary in the premises. It is believed that this same fine spirit will be found all over the country, and it is specially gratifying to know, from the letter of Vice Chairman Fred A. Jones, that Texas is responding nobly in this movement.

SURVEY WILL BE STARTED TODAY.

As indicative of the spirit animating the Waco part of the machinery, it was decided to start today on the matter and to continue the work as rapidly as possible until it shall have been concluded and full information provided and sent in on the confidential blanks which tell the story so completely. With blanks of this character from every portion of the United States, giving full and complete data on the plants and institutions which could be called upon in some manner for an output and a co-operation in time of war, it is easy to see what the great plan means, for the information will be classified, briefed and put where it can be reached at a moment's notice. The Waco district can be counted on for prompt service on the part of its efficient and active committee, which is already to move out in the work today.
